

Patty Hearst, friends believed in Hollywood

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police searching for Patricia Hearst conducted a predawn raid on a Hollywood home, startling two women who were said to match descriptions of Miss Hearst and Symbionese Liberation Army fugitive Emily Harris.

Two sleepy women in pajamas emerged as a force of 50 to 60 police leveled shotguns and tear gas rifles at the house, but police Sgt. Gene Ingram said the women had no connection with the terrorist SLA.

Mrs. Harris, who is being sought along with her husband, William, and the newspaper heiress.

Meanwhile in San Francisco, the parents of Miss Hearst are said to be outraged by the comments of law officers who in the past week have said the young heiress is an armed and dangerous fugitive.

Cecil Poole, a former U.S. attorney who met with Randolph and Catherine Hearst on Thursday, said the parents of Patricia, 20, were furious about "the excessive statements of law enforcement personnel, particularly statements by the Los Angeles district attorney."

Poole said he agreed with the Hearsts that the flood of "prejudicial" charges ought to be stopped, and said that to continue them might increase the chances that Miss Hearst, who was kidnapped more than 3½ months ago, would not surrender.

"She was a young girl who was kidnapped," said Poole of Patricia. "Something happened to her and now they are calling her a fugitive on the run."

Meanwhile, police and FBI agents continued without success their massive search for Miss Hearst and two Symbionese Liberation Army companions. Pleas for her to surrender increased.

"Throw away those guns!" urged the Hearst-owned San Francisco Examiner. "If you just let yourself be killed it is going to be a waste; your whole thing is going to be a waste," said a taped plea issued by Patricia's two younger sisters, Anne, 18, and Vicki, 17.

Referring to last Friday's fiery shootout in Los Angeles in which six SLA members died, Vicki said: "I just don't want that to happen to you." But she added: "I'm telling you right now the police and the FBI aren't all that sympathetic anymore. And they've taken a lot of trash from these guys (the SLA). And I just don't think they are going to sit around and take much more of it."

Felony charges including assault, robbery and kidnapping were filed Wednesday against Miss Hearst and the Harrises, a white couple the FBI has said are the last SLA members it seeks.

Meanwhile, one of Miss Hearst's alleged victims testified for an hour Thursday as a federal grand jury opened its investigation of an April 15 SLA bank robbery in San Francisco. Police said Thomas Matthews, 18, was held captive for 12 hours last week by Miss Hearst and the Harrises when the three became involved in an alleged shoplifting attempt at a suburban Los Angeles sporting goods store.

Edited transcripts labeled inadequate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee has been advised by its two top lawyers that it can't rely on White House-edited transcripts in its impeachment inquiry.

Errors, omissions and deletions in the 46 conversations released April 30 by President Nixon make them unsatisfactory as evidence, say chief counsel John Doar and Albert Jenner, the chief minority counsel.

They told the committee Thursday there was "an absolute need" to get the tapes of the conversations if the impeachment verdict is to be based on the best evidence.

Nixon spurned a committee subpoena for 11 Watergate tapes Wednesday and said he would not respond to any other subpoenas it may issue for Watergate material. He turned over the transcripts in response to an earlier subpoena for tapes.

In another Watergate arena, today is the deadline for White House response to subpoenas for papers left behind by two former Nixon aides when they still were working for the President. U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell has said he might have to throw out charges against the five defendants in the Ellsberg break-in case if all relevant material is not provided.

The U.S. Court of Appeals ruled Thursday that the Senate Watergate committee had not shown sufficient need for five White House tape recordings it had sought in a 10-month legal battle.

SUBPOENA REJECTED — White House attorneys Jack McCahill, left, and James D. St. Clair leave session of House Judiciary Committee's impeachment inquiry. In a letter to the committee, President Nixon rejected the panel's subpoena for additional White House tapes.

Absenteeism delays immunity vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Senate has scheduled a vote Wednesday on a bill taking away the state's immunity from lawsuits. Heavy absenteeism delayed a planned vote Thursday.

Sen Robert J. Corts, R-13 Elyria, asked that the vote be delayed when he noticed that only 20 of the 33 senators were present at the time. He said two others showed later.

"At the time it came up, I only counted 20 votes," he said. "I found out later the others were here."

The bill requires a two-thirds majority, or 22 votes, since it creates a new Court of Claims to replace the existing Sundry Claims Board.

Currently, the claims board hears cases against the state, which they sometimes pay as "moral obligations" since the state cannot be sued.

In other actions, the House finally concurred in Senate amendments to a bill allowing bars and taverns to sell lottery tickets. But the vote was close, despite the fact the only Senate amendment took an "s" from the word "chapters."

Rep. Charles L. Fry, K-75 Springfield, attempted to use the concurrence proposal to question about the possibility of kickbacks between tavern owners and the Ohio Lottery Commission, which will decide what bars can sell tickets.

Fry was finally cut off by House Speaker A. G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, who noted that House rules limited debate to concurrence and not the bill itself. Fry was not present when the bill passed the House Feb. 28.

Concurrence failed on the first vote, 49-28, with 50 votes needed for passage. Late arrival Rep. William Hinig, D-96 New Philadelphia, provided the needed 50th vote. Later still, Rep. Tom Fries, D-35 Dayton, gave it 51.

Both houses passed three proposals before adjourning for the weekend.

The Senate approved 27-0 a bill to establish a municipal court in Auglaize County where two county courts were created following abolishment of justices of the peace in Ohio.

Sen. Walter L. White, R-12 Lima, said county commissioners asked for the new court partly because a judge could not be found to sit on one of the county court benches.

Senators also approved 20-9 a House bill permitting townships and municipalities to combine to contract for ambulance services. The bill goes back to the House for approval of Senate changes.

The Senate rejected 23-0 a conference committee report on a proposed constitutional resolution to permit the taxation of recreation lands on use rather than market value.

Sponsors said a new conference committee may be sought to resolve differences between the two houses. The House has insisted on an amendment that would deny the tax relief to any landowner practicing discrimination.

Another Senate bill, passed 21-7 would allow pawn brokers to increase their interest from 3 to 5 per cent on loans between $25 and $50. Currently they can charge 5 per cent on loans up to $25 but only 3 per cent on those above.

Passed in the House were bills that would:

—Simplify the method of qualifying hospital records as authentic evidence (84-0).

—Authorize contributions of county funds to non-profit organizations for services to aged residents (81-1).

—Allow funeral directors and embalmers to remove and preserve eyes from dead persons who have stipulated they wanted them donated as an anatomical gift (85-0).

But the defendants' arguments that they wanted White House documents apparently held some sway.

Gesell is among a generation of Americans whose parents used a book "The Child From Five to Ten" as a guide to bringing them up. In his case the teaching was more direct: the author was his father, noted Yale child psychologist and pediatrician Arnold Gesell.

A Yale graduate himself, Gesell made a name as an antitrust lawyer with Covington & Burling, one of Washington's most renowned law firms.

Placed on the federal bench by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968, Gesell quickly developed a reputation as one of the most scholarly judges in the courthouse. He is one of the few who write their own opinions in total.

Rites conducted in Logan for Record-Herald editor

LOGAN — Services for veteran newspaper editor Robert S. Rochester, 65, of 634 Albin Ave., Washington C.H., were held at 1 p.m. Friday in the Roberts Funeral Home, Logan, with the Rev. Robert Shadley, pastor of the Lancaster First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Mr. Rochester, who launched his newspaper career in Logan in 1931 and had served as editor of the Record-Herald in Washington C.H. for the past 18 years, died Wednesday in the emergency room at Fayette Memorial Hospital after suffering a severe heart attack.

A Hocking County native, Mr. Rochester had been ill for the past week and was being treated in the hospital's emergency room Wednesday and awaiting transfer to a Columbus hospital when he died at 1:34 p.m.

Pallbearers for the burial in the family plot in Oak Grove Cemetery were Larry R. Joseph, Lawrence T. Webb, Kenneth L. Dollison, Dan B. Dollison, David L. Roberts and Thomas E. Roberts.

Spotlight shines on Judge Gesell

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the many Watergate court cases to date, the name of a single federal judge has gained national recognition. Now, U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard A. Gesell is beginning to share John J. Sirica's spotlight.

Two days ago, he ordered President Nixon to release the personal White House files of former aides John D. Ehrlichman and Charles W. Colson for their defense in the Ellsberg burglary case. He set today as a deadline and said: "I will allow no continuances."

Other judges tend to tread more gently. Last Monday, in ordering the White House to turn over tapes of 64 conversations for the Watergate cover-up trial, Judge Sirica allowed 11 days for a response and said that if an appeal is filed his order would be postponed automatically.

In Gesell's courtroom, things move.

When he presided over the recent trial of former White House appointments secretary Dwight L. Chapin, the court day was a punishing 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., with exactly one hour, 15 minutes for lunch.

Gesell has a facility to cut short long-winded lawyers. During one of the pretrial conferences in the Ellsberg conspiracy case, he was told national defense would be used as an argument to justify the rifling of the office of Dr. Lewis Fielding, the psychiatrist who had treated Daniel Ellsberg.

"A very simple conspiracy is alleged," said the 63-year-old, tall, white haired, portly judge. "What is relevant is whether or not there was an agreement to bust into the doctor's home and whether they did. All this talk about national defense and the Russians and everything else has nothing to do with the case."

Duke Ellington succumbs at 75

NEW YORK (AP) — Jazz bandleader and composer Duke Ellington died early today in Columbia Presbyterian Hospital after undergoing treatment for pneumonia. He was 75.

Ellington, who had been hospitalized for several months for a respiratory infection that de-

Born Edward Kennedy Ellington, the "Duke" was known the world over and was the first jazz musician to receive the French Legion of Honor, an award he was presented in July of 1973.

Asked how many countries had given him awards, he replied: "I never count awards. I only enjoy. I don't even count the bars when I write, do I? Oh, I guess I have to."

Ellington, a tall, urbane, baggy-eyed piano player, wrote more than 1,000 compositions. Among them are some that almost everybody can hum—"In My Solitude," "I Let A Song Go Out of My Heart," "Don't Get Around Much Any More," and dozens more.

In later years he poured out a prodigious stream of longer orchestral pieces, tone poems, sacred works, choral pieces, movie, television and ballet scores and even an opera or two.

He composed in taxicabs, in restaurants, on buses, and often worked until dawn after playing night club dates on his never-ending tours of the world.

In 1965, when he was 66, a Pulitzer Prize jury recommended him for a special award, but the advisory board rejected it.

"Fate is being kind to me," Ellington said. "Fate doesn't want me to be famous too young."

Johnson security cost $5.9 million

WASHINGTON (AP) — While one House committee says federal expenditures reached $5.9 million on former President Lyndon B. Johnson's property, another has promised close scrutiny for all new presidential expenditures.

The House Government Operations Committee said Thursday that most of the funds for the Johnson properties were spent on security facilities. The committee had disclosed earlier that $17.1 million was spent on homes used by President Nixon, also mainly in the name of security.

The committee said the Department of Defense and the White House Communications Agency spent an estimated $3,573,000 for communications support in connection with the LBJ Ranch in Texas.

The $5.9 million also includes $770,000 for Johnson's Austin, Tex., office; $15,000 for installation and repair of Secret Service facilities at Johnson's

Haywood Ranch where he occasionally went boating; and $34,000 for work at a hangar on the LBJ ranch "to accommodate news conferences, television broadcasts and the entertainment of foreign dignitaries."

Bostonians in state of shock; baked beans leaving town

BOSTON (AP) — For Bostonians, it's the end of an era. The baked bean is leaving town.

The Friend Brothers bean factory, the city's last, is moving to Portland, Maine, on May 1.

Friend Brothers has been producing Boston baked beans since 1928 with a recipe handed down through the Friend family from Pilgrim days. But the factory was sold last year to William Underwood Co. of Portland, and thus the move.

"I was shocked when I learned the news," said Ken Spaulding, 62, assistant manager of the bean plant in Malden, a Boston suburb. "I've been with the Friend Brothers since 1930—that's 44 years—and I expected to keep working here until I retired."

The Underwood company, which produces B&M baked beans at Portland, is closing down that facility and has offered to take on some of the Malden plant employees at its new Portland factory.

When the Pilgrims settled in New England, baked beans became a popular dish for Sunday suppers. Because cooking was not permitted on the Sabbath, the bean pot was put on the fire Saturday night and kept warm into Sunday.

Pilgrim Hester Friend's recipe traveled the generations of her family until Leslie, Victor and Robert Friend decided to open their factory in the Boston area, Spaulding said.

By the 1930s, there were five Friend bean factories in downtown and suburban locations.

In the early 1960s, however, the family business was sold, and all but the Malden factory were closed as the firm changed hands several times.

"Years ago, there used to be Homemakers Beans and Friend's . . ." Spaulding said. "Of course, Homemakers was never as big an operation as Friend's."

"Then Homemakers was purchased by an outside outfit, and they stopped making beans here. Now Friend's is leaving, too."

"It just doesn't seem right."

Deaths, Funerals

Rev. S. R. Foltz

The Rev. S.R. Foltz, 87, died at 12:30 p.m. Thursday in the Green Acres Nursing Home, Stafford Rd., where he had been a resident.

Born in Virgo County, Ind., Mr. Foltz had been a pastor of the Greenfield United Brethren Church, and a conference superintendent. He was also a retired carpenter.

He is survived by two sons, George and John (Digger), both of Rt. 3, Greenfield; three brothers, John and Laurin of Terre Haute, Ind., and Verna, of Van Wert; and five grandchildren. Two brothers and four sisters preceded him in death.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Murray Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Robert K. Blaine and the Rev. Harley Brewer officiating. Burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Effie S. Hilliard

GREENFIELD — Mrs. Effie S. Hilliard, 74, Rt. 1, Bainbridge, died at 4 a.m. Thursday in the Ross County Medical Center, Chillicothe.

Born in Ross County, Mrs. Hilliard was the widow of James Hilliard, who died in 1961.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Patterson, Rt. 1, Bainbridge, and Mrs. Gladys Noe, of Marion; nine grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Paugh and Mrs. Lillie Shadley, both of Rt. 1, Bainbridge, and a brother, Jess Shadley, Rt. 1, Bainbridge.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Anderson-Struene Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Theodore Mendenhall officiating. Burial will be in Bainbridge Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Mary E. Meyer

SABINA — Catholic Mass for Mrs. Mary E. Meyer, 70, a native of the Sabina community, will be held at 9 a.m. Friday in Tuscon, Ariz., and graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Milledgeville-Plymouth Cemetery, with the Rev. Fr. Richard L. Krug.

Calling hours will be from 7 until 9 p.m. Sunday at the Littleton Funeral Home, Sabina.

A resident of Tuscon for the past 10 years, Mrs. Meyer lived on a farm near Jeffersonville for many years and was a graduate of Sabina High School.

GEORGE W. HAMMAN — Services for George W. Hamman, 78, Rt. 2, Williamsport, were held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland, with the Rev. Michael Wright officiating. Mr. Hamman, a former who had spent his entire life in Ross County, died Tuesday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Brown's Chapel Cemetery, Clarksburg, were Willard Peterson, Frank Moats, James Hamman, George Minshall, James Sykes and Dr. Paul Fenstermaker.

JOSEPH T. CASSELL — Services for Joseph T. Cassell, 64, of Springfield, a former resident of Washington C.H., were held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home, with the Rev. Glenn DeHart officiating. Mrs. Goldie Conley sang two hymns.

An associate minister of the Full Gospel Community Church, Mr. Cassell died Tuesday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Highlawn Memory Gardens were Edgar, Charles and Samuel Malone, Mark Allen, Douglas Cottrill and Anthony Hicks.

The flag which draped the casket of the World War II veteran was folded by Paul Strevey and Clarence Hackett, and was presented to his son, Charles.

Arab terrorist bares death plans

TIBERIAS, Israel (AP) — A captured Palestinian terrorist whose suicide squad was intercepted by Israeli security forces in the Golan Heights says the band's mission was a Maalot-style raid and possible massacre at fishing villages on the Sea of Galilee.

The terrorist, who spoke some English, and another member of the eight-man squad were seized Thursday by Israeli soldiers participating in a security screen thrown up to protect border areas from guerrilla attacks.

They disclosed under interrogation the presence of the others, and the Israelis killed all six in a battle four miles inside Israel.

The captives said they belonged to the Popular Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, the same group that sent three terrorists to attack a school in Maalot last week. Twenty-one youngsters, five adults and the three

Widespread violence feared in Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — "We're not starving—yet," said Neil, a victim of the crippling general strike by Northern Ireland's Protestant militants in its 10th day today.

A Protestant, Neil is a craftsman in a Belfast factory. He said he has not been paid since the strike began.

"If the strike goes on for much longer there are going to be riots, looting and killing as people are forced to take what they can find or starve," he said.

Neil is not his real name. He asked not to be identified "because it could mean bad troubles for me and my family."

Protestant thugs have used strongarm tactics to enforce the strike, threatening men like Neil who would prefer to work.

Neil was "asked to stay away" from his downtown plant last week. He wasn't threatened directly, he said, but he knows strikers have beaten up men who defied the shutdown or set afire their homes.

The strike, called by Protestant extremists to kill plans to give the predominantly Roman Catholic Irish Republic a voice in the affairs of Northern Ireland, a British province, has brought industry and commerce to a virtual standstill.

Claim Xenia tornado victims can't qualify for assistance

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The majority of victims of tornadoes that struck 10 states in the first week of April will fail to qualify for a new federal program offering assistance grants up to $5,000. The Dayton Daily News quotes a federal official as saying in a copyrighted story in today's edition.

"We are trying to include as many people as possible," said the source in the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration in Washington. "But the new law is very restrictive once you closely analyze its meaning."

The program which permits the grants to families is contained in the Federal Disaster Relief Act of 1974, signed by President Nixon on Wednesday.

The unnamed source estimated that 100 to 500 of 6,077 heads of households who contacted the FDAA in Ohio since the tornadoes will qualify for the new grants.

Farmer wins congratulations for breaking lamb chop mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has sent warm congratulations on behalf of President Nixon to a Pipestone, Minn., farm couple for breaking the lambchop barrier.

The feat: Mr. and Mrs. John Wichern produced 200 lambs in one year from a flock of 100 ewes. The mother sheep, obviously, had to average twin births in each delivery.

"On behalf of the President, congratulations on an achievement that can only be described as incredible," Butz told the Wicherns today in a telegram.

The couple was to be honored today by the Pipestone Chamber of Commerce. Its agricultural committee for some years had a standing prize of $1,000 to any sheep producer who could come up with a 200 per cent lamb crop.

"You have done more than win the $1,000 award offered by the agricultural committee of the Pipestone Chamber of Commerce," Butz said in his telegram. "You also have established a new horizon and have served notice to the entire sheep industry in the United States what a proper breeding, feeding and management program can do."

A spokesman for Butz said Minnesota

Ford and Nixon hold quick meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both the White House and Vice President Gerald R. Ford are reluctant to say much about a hastily called conference between President Nixon and Ford.

An aide to Ford said the 45-minute meeting initiated by the President late Thursday morning made the vice president's schedule run late, leaving him "a little uptight."

Ford appeared to be in an unusually somber mood when he arrived in New York for a speech Thursday.

gunmen were killed in that carnage. Guerrilla headquarters in Beirut said the intercepted band was only one of several that had infiltrated across the Golan. "After fierce clashes, the remaining squads managed to break through the Israeli ring and reach their bases safely," a communique said.

The Israelis mentioned no other terrorist squads. They had announced on Wednesday that an Arab infiltrator armed with a Russian rifle and hand grenades had been killed in the heavy scrub of hills south of the Lebanese border.

The English-speaking Palestinian captive told newsmen his band had been sent into Israel to seize hostages and demand the release of 30 guerrillas held in Israel.

Then, if the demands were not met, they were to "blow up the houses we had captured with the hostages and ourselves as well," he said. "There would be a massacre."

plummeted to critical lows. Food stocks, especially fresh meat and vegetables, are diminishing rapidly and the stores that are still open report panic buying of canned goods.

There was a sign of a slight letup in the extremist grip Thursday night, when leaders of the Ulster Workers' Council, coordinating the strike, agreed to let power plants continue operating at their minimal scale. Supplies are at 30 per cent of normal.

Neil, 29, lives in a comfortable two-story house in Belfast's northern outskirts. Protestants and Catholics have lived peacefully side by side in the area since sectarian strife erupted in 1969. It was a refuge from the troubles.

Yet the brutal realities still reach them. Neil lost an eye when terrorists bombed his factory two years ago. He was off work for 16 months and underwent two major operations and a half-dozen minor ones.

He spent his life savings, then borrowed money from a bank and his parents to support his wife and two infant sons.

Thousands of men and women have been left jobless by the strike, and hardship is widespread. Men willing to try working have lost pay envelopes because factories and businesses shut down.

finish guidelines for the grants next week, the source said. He added that the ability to borrow money from any source, including commercial lenders of the Small Business Administration, would disqualify the applicant.

A middle income family with money set aside to send a child to college "would have a hard time justifying a grant if that money could be used instead to meet a disaster-related need," the source said.

Nor could a worker who was offered employment out of his neighborhood get a grant to buy a new car, he said.

"At most, if the job was so poor paying that he couldn't buy a car on time, he might get $600 for a used car," the source said. "A new car wouldn't be a 'necessary' expense."

"Perhaps someone who had high medical expenses and couldn't pay them off because he was crippled or someone who was too young or too old to get a loan could to it," the source said.

officials believe it is the first time in this country that a 200 per cent lamb crop had been achieved. Nationally, last year, producers saved 95 lambs from every flock of 100 ewes.

Kissinger again meets with Israelis

JERUSALEM (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said today he plans to offer his own compromise proposal aimed at breaking the Syrian-Israeli deadlock over troop limitations on the Golan front.

As he spoke, tank and artillery fire boomed along the front and Israeli and Syrian planes attacked each other's positions on the rocky plateau. The Syrians claimed knocking down three Israeli jets, but the Tel Aviv command said all its planes returned safely.

"We are considering whether approaching the issue of thinning out forces with an American proposal might help matters," Kissinger told newsmen after meeting Israeli leaders for nearly three hours.

Information Minister Shimon Peres said Kissinger was contemplating a middle of the road proposal, which he declined to spell out. But he said the secretary's idea was "a bridging which would take into consideration the particular sharp sensibilities of both sides."

Kissinger introduced an American initiative last week and won both side's approval of a truce line.

A senior U.S. official said Kissinger would return to the Syrian capital later today or Saturday, hoping to wrap up an agreement separating the two countries' hostile armies in the Golan Heights.

Either way, the official said, Kissinger will go home on Sunday—the 28th day of his marathon shuttle diplomacy mission.

The official said Thursday night that Israel and Syria were "considerably closer" to agreement on thinning their forces than they had been 24 hours earlier.

He said the progress came after Kissinger offered suggestions privately to Israeli Premier Golda Meir and later to President Hafez Assad of Syria in 4½ hours of talks.

A little cooler air is moving into Ohio and nearby areas today as a low pressure north of the Great Lakes moves slowly eastward.

Afternoon temperatures will range from the mid 60s in northern Ohio to the low 70s farther south, or about 10 degrees lower than Thursday. Skies will be partly cloudy over the state, and there is a chance of showers near the Ohio River.

The next weather system is a high pressure located early Friday over the northern plains. This high will be moving to the lower Ohio Valley Saturday, and promises to give fair weather for the long holiday weekend. However, temperatures will be below normal with cool nights and mild afternoons.

For tonight, temperatures will drop into the low 50s and 40s along with partly cloudy to clear skies. Readings Saturday afternoon are forecast near 60 along the Lake Erie shore, and 65 to 70 near the Ohio River.

Fair Sunday and Monday with cloudiness beginning Tuesday. Highs Sunday from the mid 60s to low 70s, rising to the 70s by Tuesday. Lows in the 40s, rising by Monday night to the upper 40s and low 50s.

U.S. weather a mixture

By The Associated Press
Light showers and fair skies formed a checkerboard pattern across the nation today, while scattered thunderstorms swept parts of Oklahoma and Ohio.

A tornado destroyed some out-buildings near Aurora, Mo., during the night and another was sighted at Okmulgee, Okla. Winds gusted to 65 m.p.h. as thunderstorms struck Altus, Okla., and Findlay and Bucyrus, Ohio. Showers sprinkled portions of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and spots in the Southwest.

But skies were clear over the Appalachian Mountain region, the Gulf Coast states, and the Missouri Valley, where the middle section was chilled by unseasonably cold weather.

Cloudy skies prevailed over parts of the Great Lakes region and were scattered from California to the Rockies.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 32 at Bismarck, N.D., to 84 at Phoenix, Ariz.

Colson becomes evangelist

OWOSSO, Mich. (AP) — Charles W. Colson is waging a new campaign, not for politicians but for souls. The former White House special counsel has turned evangelist.

Colson, who has been indicted for conspiracy in the Watergate cover-up and in the burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, presided over a prayer breakfast Thursday before some 300 civic and business leaders in this central Michigan town.

He warned the overflow crowd at a local YMCA of the "pitfalls of pride" and said he'd abandoned his own "damnable pride and ego" to dedicate his life to Jesus Christ.

Of his alleged Watergate involvement, Colson said, "I know I am innocent of all charges."

Colson, 42, who was widely quoted during the 1972 presidential campaign as saying he would "walk over my own grandmother" to re-elect Richard Nixon, said he never imagined becoming involved in the "biggest political cross-fire in American history."

In edited transcripts of White House tape recorded conversations that Nixon released April 30, the President expressed concern over how deeply involved Colson might be in Watergate.

In an April 14, 1973, discussion between Nixon and two White House aides of the Watergate break-in, Nixon said, "Colson is closer to this crew of robbers than anybody else." In another conversation the next day, Nixon said Colson could be tied in "up to his navel" in the cover-up.

Stock list up sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market, prompted by hopes for an easing in the interest rate spiral, turned in its strongest performance in more than two weeks today.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 6.17 at 811.40, and gainers outstripped losers by 4 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange. Trading volume, active at the opening, slowed by midday as the market approached a three-day holiday weekend. Melville Shoe was the most active NYSE issue, down 3/8 at 6 1/4. A 148,400-share block changed hands at 6.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .82 at 80.46.

Other Big Board issues on the active list included Aetna Life & Casualty, up 1/8 at 22 1/2, and MGIC Investment, up 1 at 20 1/2. Analysts noted some short covering — repurchase of borrowed shares sold earlier — in such recently depressed glamour issues.

Elsewhere in the glamour sector, Motorola, Philip Morris, Digital Equipment, Texas Instruments, Merck and Xerox all showed gains of more than a point.

See Marsh new Ohio labor head

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Carpenters Union leader Milan Marsh of Youngstown took over the leadership of the Ohio AFLCIO today, ending the 10-year reign of Frank W. King.

Final official vote totals from Thursday's balloting gave the ticket of Marsh and incumbent secretary-treasurer Warren J. Smith 3,014 votes to 1,801 for King's slate.

Smith said his entire slate of 34 vice presidents also won, giving the labor organization a "unified leadership."

The Marsh-Smith slate of executive board members included several from the previous board which had been split by a feud between King and Smith.

In accepting the presidency, Marsh told the convention delegates his goal was to unify the state organization.

Smith said Thursday that victory for his ticket would give the organization "a more effective, unified operation—particularly in political and legislative programs."

Say Nixon weathered transcripts

NEW YORK (AP) — Pollster Louis Harris says President Nixon weathered release of the White House tape transcripts and held on to an important positive job rating from 32 per cent of the respondents to a nationwide survey. "This is significant," Harris said Thursday, "because, by coincidence, all he needs is the support of 34 out of 100 U.S. Senators to avoid being removed from office."

The 1,555 adults were not polled until May 7-8, Harris continued, "until the full impact of the contents of the edited Watergate transcripts had had time to sink in."

"By and large, despite the spate of calls for the resignation of Mr. Nixon by hitherto pillars of conservative, pro-Nixon support, the President did not suffer as much as most observers thought he had."

Harris credited Nixon's continued prestige with the public in foreign affairs for the 32 per cent positive job rating, against 66 per cent who gave Nixon a negative rating and 2 per cent who were not sure. Nixon had a 31 per cent positive score in March and April.

However, 73 per cent of those queried earlier this month believed Nixon had lost so much credibility that it will be hard for him to be accepted as President again. Twenty per cent disagreed and 7 per cent were not sure.

Ohio Perspective

Gilligan plan very displeasing to Perk

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan's supplemental appropriations bill in this election year contains a Cleveland item which doesn't exactly please Mayor Ralph J. Perk.

Perk, the Republican nominee for U.S. Senate in the November election, raised his eyebrows at an appropriation that would have the state take over and operate two financially troubled Cleveland parks. Gilligan asked the General Assembly for an outlay of $202,494 to restore Edgewater Beach and Gordon parks. The Department of Natural Resources would begin operating them in the summer of 1975.

Perk's initial reaction was that the Democratic governor, who also will be on the November ballot for re-election, is seeking to take over the city's "valuable lakefront property" and restore the parks "with money that came from Cleveland in the first place."

The governor's $43.5 million supplemental appropriations bill is to be financed with anticipated profits from the first year of state lottery operations.

Perk said he would rather have the state share the lottery proceeds with Cleveland and allow its officials and citizens to decide what to do with the money.

"That determination shouldn't be made by someone who lives in Columbus and Cincinnati," he said.

Former astronaut John Glenn's telling "Gold Star Mothers" speech the weekend before the May 7 primary election on the broadcast media went to the microphone with a $5,000 guaranteed donation by a Cleveland lawyer, Jack E. Dempsey, a former Navy pilot.

Dempsey pledged that amount for the radio blitz in reply to the accusation by interim U.S. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum that Glenn had held no job for years.

Apparently other servicemen dug into their pockets to pay for the blitz because only $500 of Dempsey's money was needed.

The blitz was credited by some politicians with giving Glenn the Democratic nomination over Metzenbaum.

Minority members of the General Assembly sometimes vent their frustrations by making proposals even they know aren't going anywhere.

Somehow, it seems to help. Rep. Fred N. Young, R-38 Dayton, offered the Democratic House Finance Committee an opportunity to back a minority party appropriations bill rather than introduce a new one of its own.

Rep. William E. Hinig, D-96 New Philadelphia, thanked the Dayton Republican, but observed that, "It's just not politically practical."

PLANNED USE REPORT GENERAL REVENUE SHARING

General Revenue Sharing provides federal funds directly to local and state governments. The law requires each government to publish a report of its plans for the use of these funds to inform its citizens and to encourage their participation in deciding how the money ought to be spent. Within the purposes listed, your government may change this spending plan.

Legion auxiliary nixes handicapped

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio American Legion Auxiliary is standing firm on its policy of barring the physically handicapped from participation in Buckeye Girls State, the program's director said.

Mrs. Lester Merritt said rules have been modified "as far as they can be." She said the "democracy in action" program will take place as scheduled June 15-23 at Capital University.

Mrs. Merritt made the statement in response to Whetstone High School teacher Peggy Corn's efforts to include physically handicapped girls in the program.

Mrs. Merritt said the Girls State program is so fast-paced that people on crutches and in wheelchairs, the blind and other handicapped "can't keep up" with other girls.

She said she and other Girls State officials have not considered slowing the pace or further altering the exclusionary rule, since a 1971 amendment.

The auxiliary's blanket exclusion rule came under fire three years ago when Holly Reed, then an Eastmoor High School junior, was excluded by Girls State officials because she is blind.

The rule was amended to read that girls recommended "most in the opinion of the staff physician and those in charge have no incapacitating physical or mental disabilities." Girls are chosen for the program on the basis of school officials' recommendations.

Mrs. Corn asked the Columbus Board of Education to negotiate with the auxiliary in an attempt to include physically handicapped girls. She also asked that the board suspend its participation in the program if the "discrimination" is still in effect at the end of the year.

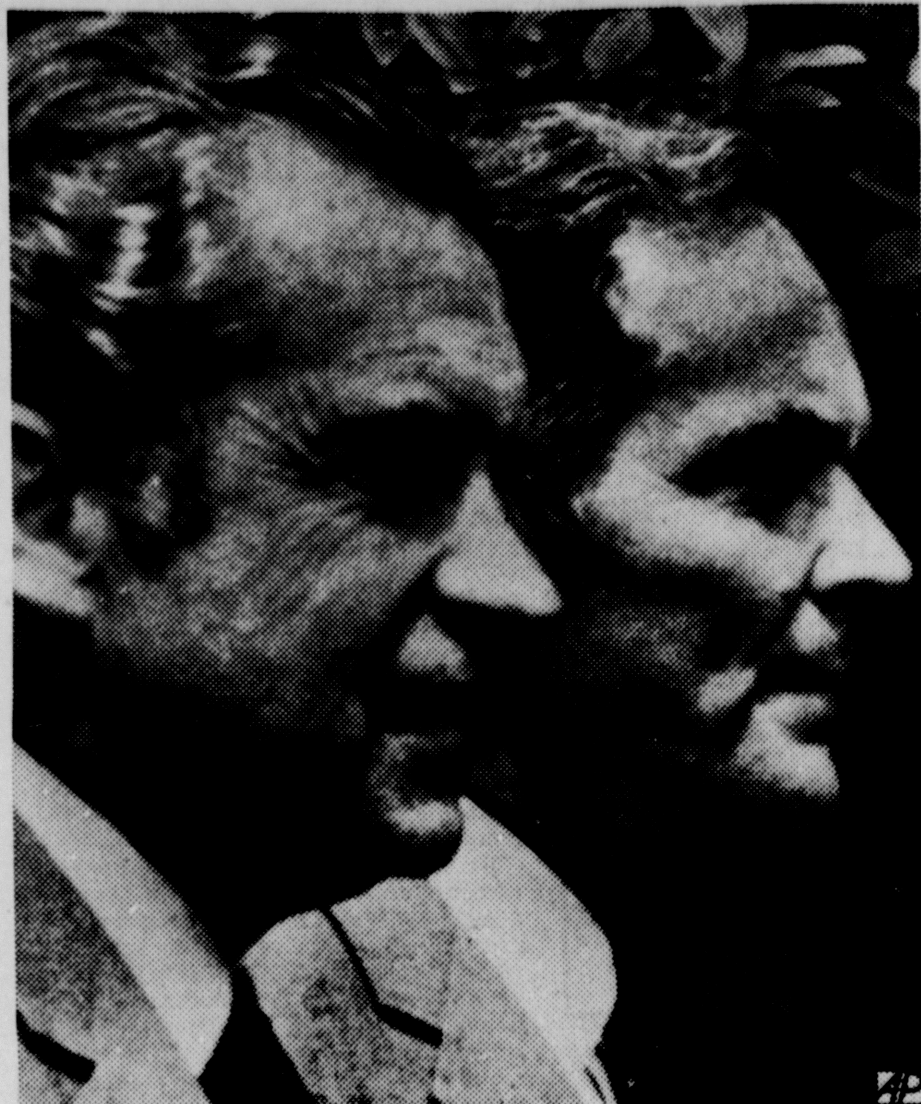

Board President Virginia Prentice appointed a representative to open talks with Girls State officials to discuss reasons for the policy.

Extend order against subpoenas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A temporary restraining order blocking subpoenas in an investigation of State Office Tower contracts has been extended through July 1.

State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson issued the subpoenas last month ordering two Columbus banks to turn over personal and business bank records of former Ohio Building Authority Director George F. Busche, and Intraspace Planning Group, Inc., interior designers for the 41-story project.

Busche and officers of Intraspace countersued, accusing Ferguson of a "fishing expedition." Franklin County Common Pleas Judge George Tyack extended his restraining order last week to consider final arguments by both sides.

4-H Roundup

By JEANNIE ANDERSON
4-H Assistant

Food-nutrition projects are among the most popular of the more than 170 projects available to Ohio 4-H'ers.

More than 56,000 girls and boys worked in one or more food preparation or preservation projects during the past year. For the even larger number enrolled for the new 4-H year here are some money and energy saving ideas.

Match your pots and pans to the size of your stove burners.

Put your pots and pans on the range before the heat is turned on.

When possible, use your oven in place of the stove surface units since less heat is lost in a confined area.

Turn your electric range off just before cooking time is up to use residual heat to finish the job and keep food warm before serving.

Use small electric appliances in place of major appliances for specialized jobs. Electric skillets, toasters, waffle irons, popcorn poppers, coffee pots generally use less electricity than a range does on the same job.

Read your appliance manual to find the temperature for your refrigerator and freezer. Keeping food too cold wastes energy.

Pre-heat your oven only when necessary.

When possible, cook several things in your oven at once by taking the average of heat needed and setting the temperature accordingly.

YOUNG PEOPLE having fun together find it difficult to break up without a call for food. And the well-prepared hostess easily meets the challenge with a variety of home-canned foods and a well-stocked freezer. Among the strongest advocates of home canning and freezing are the many many 4-H'ers enrolled in food preservation projects. They never are at a loss for exciting and nourishing foods to delight friends. And the variety is nearly endless as they choose from home preserved fruits, vegetables, meats, jams, jellies, pickles and other goodies. Although home preserved foods fill the needs for quick tasty snacks and spur-of-the-moment get-togethers, they are a boon to nutritious family meals and a blanced budget. And the 4-H'ers find home-canned food much sought after and appreciated when given as gifts.

Now is an excellent opportunity to take this project with fresh fruits and vegetables that will be coming available at this time of year.

You will be proud of all the "goodies" you preserve in your 4-H Food Preservation Project. You will also notice the money saved in your food budget.

Interested adults are also needed to give their knowledge and talents as a 4-H advisors.

For information about the 4-H food preservation program, or help with food preservation methods, contact your County Extension Office at 335-1150.

The Conquest of Ai

And Joshua stretched out the spear . . . toward the city (as the Lord had commanded) and they entered . . . and took it. Joshua 8: 18-19

Despite Joshua's orders that there was to be no looting of Jericho, many of the Israelites, led by Achan, the Judean, disobeyed and pilated its treasures. The Lord was angered. Thus, when Joshua's armies tried to conquer the city of Ai, He permitted them to be defeated. Joshua, desperate, thought God had finally failed him. He prayed and the Lord heard, but insisted that Achan and his men be punished. When this was done, He gave Joshua a plan for taking Ai. Part of his troops were to go before the city while other ranks would occupy its rear. Those in front were to run as if fearful and, when pursued by the Ais, Joshua was to stretch forth his spear and the rearward troops would enter the almost deserted city and destroy it.

African bishop lauds U.S. industry there

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A spiritual chieftain of blacks in South-West Africa, invited to take part in church criticisms of a U.S. firm operating in his homeland, had in contrast some words of praise.
"The Americans are doing their best by my people," Bishop Leonard N. Auala said in an interview. "The company men do not want to discriminate. Only because of the apartheid policies, they have to listen." His gentle manner injected a moderating note—and some surprise—into the U.S. church case.

At the same time, however, he condemned the racial separation of apartheid, and said "my people suffer very low wages and difficult conditions. Pay should be according to skilled work, not according to skin."
Despite the problems, he said he strongly opposes efforts to get American firms to withdraw operations in protest to apartheid, saying such action would leave blacks jobless and without means of livelihood.

Baptist Convention firm on homosexuality

COLUMBUS — At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Ohio Baptist Convention, held in Columbus, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

In the light of increasing pressure on the part of homosexuals to gain popular acceptance for their life style and the effort on the part of homosexuals to establish "gay churches" and to have such churches received into the official life of various denominations; to obtain recognition of "gay caucuses" with the denominations; and to ordain avowed homosexuals; it is our opinion that The Ohio Baptist Convention should take a definite position concerning this issue.

We believe that homosexuals are persons for whom Christ died and that it is the responsibility and privilege of the Church to minister to them as well as to others; making known to them the gospel of love and redemption as it is in Jesus Christ our Lord. However, we believe that the scriptures clearly teach that homosexuality is a transgression of God's law and that it is contrary to nature and morally wrong. We also believe that to accept homosexuality as a legitimate life style for a Christian does severe violence to the scripture. As American Baptists, we are bound by the New Testament as our rule of faith and practice. Therefore, we must reject "homosexuality" as contrary to God's will and purpose for man on the basis of the scriptural imperatives.

Priest faces discipline for stand

BOSTON (AP) — The Rev. John McLaughlin, the Jesuit priest and presidential aide who recently defended President Nixon's use of profanity, has been called to Boston by his religious superior for "prayer and reflection."

The Rev. Richard T. Cleary, provincial of the Jesuit Fathers of New England, said Wednesday there was a possibility Father McLaughlin could be asked to leave his White House post, or be dismissed from the order, which would not necessarily affect his status as a priest. Father Cleary, who noted Father McLaughlin was living in the Watergate apartments in Washington, questioned whether the priest was living up to his vows of poverty and obedience.

Father McLaughlin recently spoke out in defense of Nixon, saying he was a great moral leader and that his use of curse words was a necessary release mechanism.

Father Cleary, asked if he would agree with Father McLaughlin's defense of profanity, said, "I would be standing up against Moses if I did ... 'Thou shalt not take the name of thy Lord and God in vain.'" He said Father McLaughlin was not speaking for the church.

Father Cleary also said he had no record of Father McLaughlin being given permission to live in the exclusive Watergate apartments.

"Speaking for myself, I would not live there," he said, adding that Jesuits usually are required to live in Jesuit communities.

"I will be asking him to take a brief time away for prayer about his situation and reflection with me," Father Cleary said, adding he was asking Father McLaughlin to come to Boston as "soon as he can get time to do it."

Father Cleary said, "I do not intend to hurt him ... I am not saying he is not in good standing as a Jesuit priest."

The Ohio Baptist Convention goes on record as opposed to "gay churches" being a part of the life of our caucus", or the ordination of an avowed homosexual in the gospel ministry.

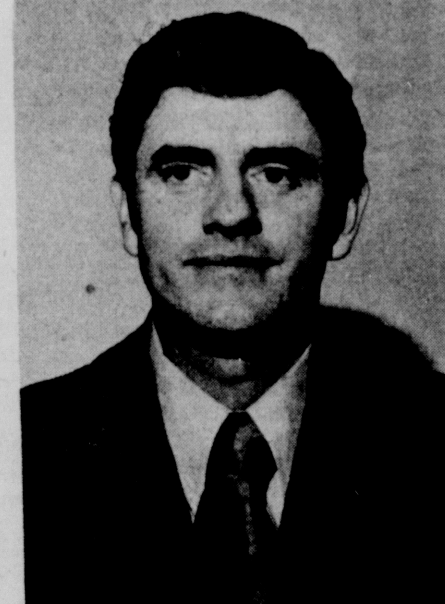

We further recommend that the position of The Ohio Baptist Convention be communicated to all American Baptists through the office of our Executive Minister and through a statement released by the American Baptist Magazine and through the Minister's Council of The American Baptist Churches of the USA.

Staunton Church holds bake sale, plans songfest

The Staunton United Methodist Women will sponsor a bake sale at Buckeye Mart from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday. A wide variety of homemade goods will be available, and all proceeds will be used to fund the purchase of new church doors.

Sunday, the congregation will hold a songfest at the church, located six miles south on U.S. 62. Mrs. Mary Lou Hawkins, chairman of the church music committee, will be in charge of the program which is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

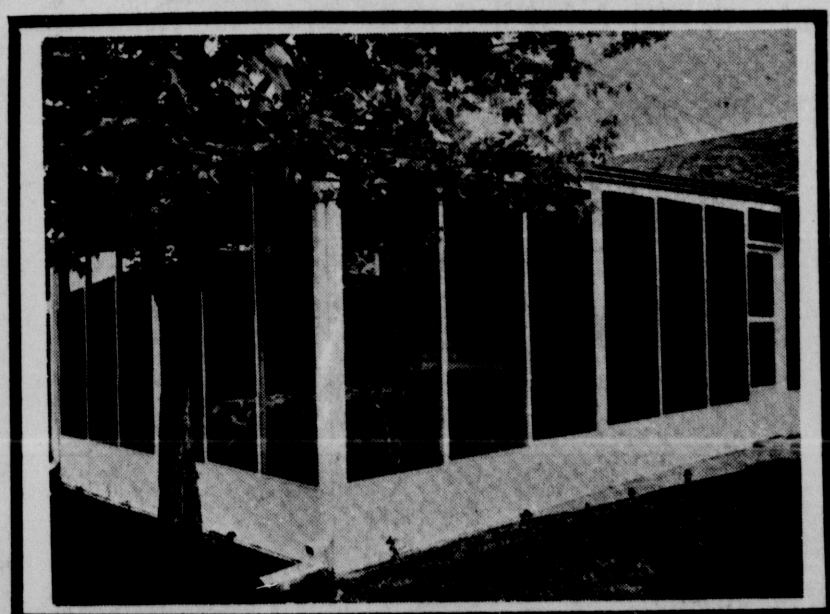

The congregation is urged to attend and join in singing of their favorite songs. There will be no offering taken.

Guest minister leads service

An evangelist from Chillicothe will be the guest speaker at the N.Y.P.S. youth service at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the First Church of the Nazarene, Ohio 41-S. The Rev. Delbert Allison, well-known for his work at area camp meetings, will address the youth group. He is also known for the fact that he was a racing car driver prior to joining the ministry 14 years ago.

MISS NATALIE FLOWERS

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver V. Flowers, 311 E. Elm St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Natalie, to Chris William Fender, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Coston Fender of Lake City, Fla. Miss Flowers, a graduate of Washington Senior High School in the Class of 1973, is employed at Union 76 station, I-71.

Her fiancé, a 1964 graduate of Lake City High School, is employed by United Van Lines, Saginaw, Mich. No wedding date has been set.

Mothers' Circle has final meet

Members of Mothers' Circle met at Roller Haven for the final meeting of the year, and an evening of fun with their children. Youngsters from the Children's Home were invited as guests, and everyone enjoyed a buffet supper before donning skates, served by the party committee which was composed of Mrs. Leonard Bach, chairman, Mrs. John Enochs, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Sidney Terhune, Mrs. William Pool, Mrs. Shirley Wisecup, Mrs. Warren Craig, Mrs. Allen Puffenberger, Mrs. Ralph Marcy and Mrs. Lawrence Lehman.

Mrs. Charles Tye, president, conducted the brief business meeting during which she presented the gavel to next year's president, Mrs. Jack Persinger.

Mrs. Noble Rumer and Mrs. Don Wald were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Persinger presented Mrs. Tye with a gift from the club in appreciation of her work during the past year.

Mrs. Smith Aid hostess

Mrs. Cecil Smith was hostess when the New Martinsburg Ladies Aid met in her home. Mrs. Nathaniel Tway was the assisting hostess.

"Gratitude for Mothers" was the name of the article presented by Mrs. Robert Bock, and all answered roll call by naming a mother of the Bible days. It was announced that members are to bring either Betty Crocker coupons or trading stamps to the next meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. George Durnell. They will be sent to the Southside Settlement in Columbus.

Cheer cards were sent to Mrs. Nathaniel Tway, Mrs. Eva Jett and Mrs. Thurel Wilson.

"Mother and Womenhood" was the title of an article read by Mrs. Edward Lee Carson, who had a picture of four generations of her family, representing family life. She also read "Measure of a Woman," "Mothers of Jesus' Time," "Beatitudes of the Home," and "Melañcholy Mama." She also conducted a flower and Bible quiz.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Flossie Brooks, Mrs. George Durnell, Mrs. Oscar McCoy, Mrs. Robert Bock, Mrs. Russell Grice, Mrs. Edward Lee Carson, Mrs. Robert Ritter, Mrs. C. A. Wilson and little Stacy Russard, a guest.

Miss Penwell complimented

A wedding shower honoring Miss Jeannie Penwell was held in First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall Thursday evening. Games were won by Mrs. Tom Penrod and Mrs. Chester Howell. A game of "concentration" was enjoyed by everyone with all prizes going to the guest of honor.

Four cakes, representing four bridesmaids, centered the table. They were decorated and flanked on each side by pink tapers. Cake and punch were served by Mrs. Larry Oates, Mrs. Robert Bachelor and Stan Howell.

Those present were Mrs. Tom Mossbarger, Chris, Linda and Sheri Oates, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Charles

Stemple, Mrs. Carl Krieger, Mrs. Eugene Alkire, Mrs. Bachelor, Mrs. Penrod, Mrs. Ralph Wolford, Mrs. Paul Brunner, Mrs. Charles Hurtt, Mrs. Robert Penwell, Mrs. Chester Howell, Miss Starr Howell, and Mrs. Larry Oates.

Sending gifts were Miss Mabel Briggs, Mrs. Norman Thomas, Mrs. James Vess, Mrs. Ralph Yerian, Betsy and Cheryl Krieger, Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, Mrs. Mary Graves, Jeanne Davis, Susan and Nancy Brunner, Mrs. Kenneth Chaney, Mrs. Gary Roe, Miss Nancy Hurtt and Mrs. Anna Howard.

Miss Penwell and Jerry Howell will be married June 1.

Mrs. Larry Loyd guest speaker for Women's Association

Mrs. Harvey Heironimus, president, presided at the Thursday afternoon meeting of Women's Association of First Presbyterian church in Persinger Hall.

Mrs. Heironimus opened the meeting with an inspirational verse which was followed by the singing of "In Christ There is No East or West", with Mrs. Gerald Wheat accompanying at the piano. A responsive reading, Scripture from the Book of Ephesians and prayer was offered. Mrs. Marguerite Jenkins gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Heironimus reminded members that the summer medical offering will be taken at the various circle meetings to be turned in by Sept. 10.

Mrs. Larry Loyd, Mission coordinator, presented a very interesting and enlightening program concerning her native country, Colombia, South America. She compared the religious, social, educational customs and the climate of Colombia with these phases of life in the United States as she has become familiar with them since she first came here as a teacher in 1961. She said that her first impression, and the tourist's impression of the United States is that it is a very rich country.

Pleasant View Aid meets

Mrs. Richard Yenger was hostess for the Pleasant View Ladies Aid meeting held at the Pleasant View Church Mrs. Harold Cline presented devotions.

It was announced that the Lawn Fete is planned at the church July 14, and that three Bibles will be presented to graduating seniors Jeff Long, Nancy Bentley and Rosemary Mootz.

The Aid made and took to VA Hospital, Chillicothe, 30 bibs made for use at the hospital.

Miss Thornton honor guest

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thornton and daughter Dianne were hosts at a graduation dinner-party Thursday night, honoring their daughter, Mary Jo, who is a member of the 1974 Class of Miami Trace High School.

Carnations and mums were in a wicker basket and spring flower arrangements were in focal points throughout the home.

A large decorated cake, inscribed with "Class of 1974" was the center of interest.

Guests present were Sheila Gordon, Marlene Braun, Patricia Persinger, Julie Frost, Nancy Benson, Dee Dee Lange, Dawn Schlichter, Cindy Mountcastle, Mariann Arnold, Kim Fleming, Mary Ford, all seniors, and the honor guest.

Virginia Circle meets in Fults home

The Virginia Circle of the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church met in the home of Miss Helen Fults. Mrs. Dorothy Groves, circle leader, opened the meeting with the poem, "This is May." The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison and roll was answered by naming a Bible character.

Mrs. Dale Davidson had charge of devotions and the program. An article from the Upper Room was read and the program topic was "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God."

A picnic will be featured at the June meeting in the home of Mrs. Harold Zimmerman.

A dessert course was served.

CF leaders discuss annual candy sale

The Paint Valley Council of Camp Fire Girls met in the CF office with Mr. Frank Sanderson in charge. It was announced by Paul Sullivan, that volunteers are needed to work at Camp Murdock, to 'ready' the camp for Day Camp activities in June.

The annual candy sale was discussed and Mrs. Lawrence Dumford and Mrs. Robert Riley are co-chairmen.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sullivan, Mrs. Gerald Wheat, Mrs. Charles Harris, Mrs. Donald Wood, Mrs. Charles Zinn, Mrs. Dumford, Mr. Paul Edgington, Mrs. Rollo Marchant, Mrs. Allen O. McClung, Mrs. Fred James and Mrs. Robert Riley.

Bridge players welcome guests

Arrangements of lovely daisies centered the tables at the Washington Country Club Thursday afternoon for the bridge-luncheon. There were 25 present.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Reichelderfer, Mrs. H.L. Osborne and Mrs. James Chakeres.

Mrs. Robert M. Jefferson and Mrs. Ed Vollette were guests.

PERSONALS

Mr. Donald Butts and Mr. Arch Shambolt, both of Dayton, and Mr. Earl Jackson of Winchester, all employees of Ohio Bell, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott, 313 Worley St.

Gimmick dishes often unsatisfactory

The shelves of many bookstores are crammed with cookbooks whose off-beat titles clamor for attention. And the recipes inside may make you do a double take.

One tells how to make beer soup, another extolls roast turkey coated with peanut butter and a third offers a recipe for sauteed flower blossoms.

The food field has been covered so thoroughly that many authors feel they must try some gimmick to attract attention. Yet there are a number of common sense hits about cooking that many of us don't know; hints that can save you money, cut down on your fuel output and give your taste buds a treat.

The word gourmet, for instance, scares many away because it conjures up an image of food that is prohibitively expensive and all but impossible for the layman to cook. The fact is many of the classic dishes are quite simple to cook and relatively inexpensive — if that term can be applied to any food today.

A friend of mine once remarked that there was one gourmet dish that could be made for about 30 cents — a two-egg omelet. Two dimes will buy the eggs and the remaining 10 cents should cover a pinch of herbs, salt, pepper and a dab of butter to grease the pan.

Anyone who has spent time in New England should recall the boiled vegetable dinners. Operating on the theory that you should skip meat at least one day a week, a farm family I stayed with in New Hampshire set aside Wednesday for one of these specials, featuring a platter piled high with green wedges of young cabbage, crisp carrots and tiny bright red beets.

My host also performed a feat with broccoli that bears repeating here.

BROCCOLI EGG DIVAN
1 Bunch Broccoli
4 hard-cooked eggs
½ teaspoon salt, divided
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 can (10½ oz) condensed cheddar cheese soup
1-3rd cup milk
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

To prepare broccoli, cut off large leaves and bottom of stalk. Wash well. If stalk is more than ½ inch in diameter, make 2 lengthwise slits almost to flowerets. Cook broccoli, uncovered in boiling salted water till tender, about 15 minutes. Drain.

Arrange broccoli, stems toward the center in a 10-inch pie plate. Slice eggs crosswise and lay in layers over broccoli. Sprinkle with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper. Mix undiluted soup with milk till smooth. Pour over broccoli and eggs in pie plate. Mix together bread crumbs, melted butter and remaining ¼ teaspoon salt. Sprinkle over cheese sauce. Bake in 375-degree oven 20 minutes till cheese sauce bubbles and bread crumbs are slightly browned. Serves 4. Good with a chilled dry white wine.

INMATES STATE DEMANDS — Prisoner spokesmen for 46 inmates of the Jackson County jail at Kansas City, Mo., who had taken three guards hostage and demanded a meeting with news media tell their demands to an early-morning news conference. The guards were released in exchange for a county executive and a newsman who volunteered to place themselves as hostages. Later the pair were released.

State promotes drinking limits

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State of Ohio is changing its tactics to reduce the number of traffic accidents caused by drunk drivers.

The health, highway safety, liquor control and transportation departments have banded together to help Ohio drivers learn how much alcohol they can drink before becoming dangerous drivers.

Acting Highway Safety Director Frederick A. Vierow admits the "Know Your Limit" campaign is a departure from the former "if you drink, don't drive" efforts.

But he said Thursday "prohibition was tried and it didn't work."

"It is time to educate ourselves about how much alcohol can be safely consumed before driving ability is impaired," he said during a news conference.

The public information campaign is to include statewide distribution of three million cards with blood alcohol content calculated to body weight; public service announcements; a speakers' bureau and the participation of civic groups.

Ohio Liquor Control Director Richard E. Guggenheim told the news conference his agency will distribute cards and information in state liquor stores to promote the effort.

He said tavern owners would "like to look at it a little more" before participating in the campaign.

The state and federal government will split the cost of the $24,000 program, according to Ohio Transportation Director J. Phillip Richley. The funds are provided to the state Department of Health's alcohol safety projects.

Leonard J. Porter, chief of the alcohol highway safety programs for the health department, said the campaign's effectiveness will be evaluated through a statewide house-to-house survey in October.

Porter said the program has reached 60 per cent of its "target audience" in 34 other areas in which it has been used.

According to the departments' figures, a person who weighs 200 pounds would be driving illegally if he consumed six ounces of 100 proof liquor or six 12-ounce beers within an hour.

That much alcohol would raise the blood alcohol content to .11 per cent. A BAC of .10 per cent is the presumptive level for conviction for driving while intoxicated, Vierow said.

"Knowledge of the facts would not only give the responsible social drinker a guideline to follow, it would also help enforcement in the courts," Vierow said.

"Jury members familiar with these facts would be less inclined to acquit a person with a BAC of .20," he explained. "They would know it took more than a 'few beers' to reach that level. It would take more like 10 beers in one hour or about 12 in three hours."

DeFreeze funeral rites held

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Donald DeFreeze was marched to his grave to the beat of African drums here Thursday, while police officials in Los Angeles announced that the self-styled Symbionese Liberation Army general probably committed suicide just before police stormed the house where he died in a shootout last week.

A representative of the House of Wills funeral home estimated that about 1,000 persons listened to prayers by a Baptist minister and an orthodox Muslim in the chapel or waited outside for a glimpse of the coffin after the half-hour ceremony.

Noticeably absent, however, were the national revolutionary leaders DeFreeze's brother had called on to attend.

Meanwhile, Los Angeles County Coroner Thomas P. Noguchi said that gunpowder traces around a gunshot wound in DeFreeze's right temple indicated a self-inflicted fatal injury.

He said fingers and teeth used to identify DeFreeze would be kept in Los Angeles until the case was closed.

Cause of death of the other five persons slain in the shootout, also identified by police as SLA members, had not been determined, Noguchi said.

After the funeral, Delano DeFreeze, a brother of the slain man, said his understanding of a case was that when a man was dead, the case was closed.

"It will definitely carry my family through some strain knowing that it's a possibility that we might have to open the grave again," he said.

A family spokesman said that only one of the slain man's eight brothers and sisters could not attend. Gloria DeFreeze, who divorced Donald in 1973, and his mother, Mary, attended, as did his six children.

In the eulogy and at a graveside news conference, Delano DeFreeze and Abdul Raheeb, a friend of the SLA chief, characterized Donald DeFreeze as a revolutionary leader who died for his ideals.

Cincinnati GM walkout ends

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Production resumed at the General Motors Assembly Division plant here today after a one-day wildcat walkout by union workers.

A company spokesman refused to say whether all the strikers were back on the job. "I can just tell you the line is running again," he said.

Another GM official, Jim Dunn, said company representatives and union leaders would confer later in an effort to resolve the dispute that led to the walkout.

Gasoline available on Ohio Turnpike

BEREA, Ohio (AP) — Motorists will have no trouble getting gasoline on the Ohio Turnpike this holiday weekend, the Ohio Turnpike Commission said Thursday.

Executive Director Allan V. Johnson said that turnpike service stations would be open 24 hours a day and would not be limiting gasoline sales.

Radiation at atom plant to be probed

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The amount of radioactivity that will be released by the proposed Perry nuclear power station will be the subject next week of a public hearing here.

The Atomic Energy Commission's Atomic Safety and Licensing Board rejected a request Thursday by a citizens' group that site suitability hearings on the plant be postponed until this fall.

The Cleveland-based Coalition for Safe Nuclear Power made the request at a pre-hearing conference, asking that the session be combined with radiation hearings set for later this year.

The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. and four other utilities are seeking a permit to begin construction of the $1.3 million facility which is scheduled to begin operating in the fall of 1979.

Gerald Charoff, a CEI lawyer, told the board the company wants limited construction authorization from the AEC to begin work by Oct. 23. After that date, the plant would need approval from the newly formed Ohio Power Siting Commission, and that would mean a delay of a year, he said.

The siting commission and the coalition contend that CEI's assumptions about the demand for electric power should be examined. A coalition spokesman has charged that the company creates much of the demand by advertising.

Transportation director OKs bridge project

COLUMBUS — Ohio Transportation Director J. Phillip Richley has approved location and design for the proposed replacement of a narrow, deficient bridge four miles south of Washington C. H. on Ohio 41.

Proposal was discussed during a highway Division public hearing in Washington C. H. March 14.

The replacement bridge over Sugar Creek would be on improved alignment with new 24-foot approach pavement.

Maps, sketches, environmental factors and all other information concerning the proposed improvement is available to the public for viewing at the ODOT division office, 400 E. William St., Delaware.

Regional planning vote proposal is unfavorable

A proposal regarding the allocation of voting strength for the eight-county Mid-Ohio Regional Commission resulted in unfavorable response by some members of the commission during a meeting Thursday in Columbus.

J. Herbert Perrill, chairman of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners, who is presently representing Fayette County on the regional planning authority, said the principal objector was Columbus Mayor Tom Moody.

Under the proposal submitted by a special negotiating committee, a double requirement would exist for a quorum to take action on any matter.

The provisions would require that 51 per cent of the total board members (at least 25) be present and that three-fourths of the member counties (at least six) also be represented.

IN ADDITION, a three-fourths vote of all members present would be required to constitute an official action. If the quorum requirement is not met at a given meeting, official action could be taken at the next meeting by a three-fourths vote of 51 per cent of the total board members.

Another feature of the proposal was that costs of operation would be allocated to the governmental units on the basis of their voting percentage, not per capita.

Moody submitted a proposal under which Franklin County would have a 71 per cent share of the voting strength. Moody's suggestion met opposition from a number of the regional planning commission members.

The two proposals will be submitted for further consideration at the next meeting which will be held in five weeks.

Under the negotiating committee's plan at least two-thirds of the representatives from each county must be local elected officials; one commissioner from each member county; one county appointee, preferably a township trustee; one person to represent all villages in the county, and one representative from each county for each increment of 100,000 population.

That proposal would give Fayette, Fairfield, Delaware, Madison, Pickaway and Union counties would each have 8.3 per cent of the voting strength. Franklin County would have 39.7 per cent and Licking County would have 10.5 per cent.

The eight counties would have a 48-member governing board, under the proposal, and Fayette County would have four representatives.

Program recognizes 100 Eber 8th grade students

Nearly 100 eighth grade students at Eber Junior School were recognized during a special program Thursday afternoon in the school cafeteria.

Two special awards highlighted the program. Kathy Jenkins and Joe Garland received the Danny Miller memorial citizenship awards and will have their names engraved on a plaque at the school. Scott Martin was named the winner of the friendship award. The award was presented by Bill Octen.

Principal Robert Creamer presented honor roll awards to six students who have maintained a 3.5 academic average or above over a two-year period. They were Kathy Jenkins, Sue Mitchell, Brad Maust, Joyce Huffman, Becky Callendar and Dorothy Blake.

CLASS PRESIDENT Vicki Bennett introduced Sally Bowles, who read the class poem. Keith Downing was chairman of the school's sports activities. Brent Knisley, Chris Kuebler, Don Eyre and Ralph Fast reported on the school's participation in various sports activities throughout the year.

The class prophecy was written and read by Rick Pfeifer. Pete Winttingham and Larry Hall assisted.

The class will was read by Cherie Holbrook, Dianne Jackson, Tom Wilkins, Linda Neiswenter, Kari Clay, Mike Chaney, Chip Adams, Rex Raines, Kevin Anderson and Linda Merritt.

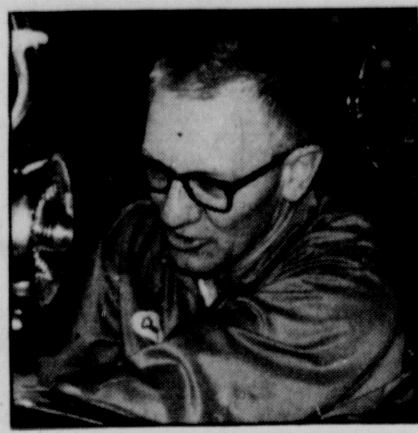

Kenny Clouser and Tom Tarbutton read the class history and Dianne Jackson, Becky Callendar and Vicki Bennett were recognized as the eighth grade cheerleaders.

The meal was prepared by Mrs. Edna Carman and Mrs. Charles Johnson.

If you need a car that's roomy and comfortable at an affordable price, Impala is a sensible buy.

Not every family can fit into one of today's popular small cars. Because of your family's size or your job, it may make sense to own a full-size car like the Chevrolet Impala with a roomy interior that holds six comfortably.

If you sometimes haul bulky objects, you'll appreciate Impala's 18 cubic feet of trunk space. And to make the least of rough roads, Impala has Full Coil spring suspension, strategically placed rubber body mounts and extensive sound insulating.

For extra protection, there are side guard door beams and a Cargo Guard luggage compartment. And to make driving more pleasant, Impala comes with such standard features as Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, power front disc/rear drum brakes and variable ratio power steering.

Come in and let us show you why it makes sense to buy a reasonably priced Impala, the car that's been the nation's Number One seller for 14 years. And why it makes sense to buy it from us.

New camping area opened at Deer Creek State Park

Federal, state and local officials joined today to open a new camping area at Deer Creek State Park in Pickaway County.

Ohio Natural Resources Director William B. Nye along with State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker, D-Bourneville, and Lt. Col. Orland K. Hill, deputy district engineer of the Huntington, W. Va., district of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, formally opened the campground at a ceremony at 10 a.m. at the park.

Also present at the ceremony were representatives of the Chambers of Commerce of Circleville, Washington C.H., Mount Sterling and New Holland.

Ranney Water Systems, of Columbus, constructed the 232 Class A camping sites and supporting facilities for the Corps of Engineers at a cost of $1,233,922. About 80 of the camping sites won't be available for about a week when grading to correct a drainage problem is completed.

"DEER CREEK is within 50 miles of Columbus, Dayton, Springfield and Chillicothe," Nye said, "making it less than an hour's drive for more than two million Ohioans."

About 5.4 million Ohioans live within 100 miles of the park.

The camping sites, all with electricity available, rent on a first-come, first-served basis for $2.50 a night. The campground includes four washrooms with showers and laundry facilities, six modern restrooms, a trailer waste station and a parking lot for 42 cars and 20 cars with trailers.

One washhouse is specially equipped for handicapped campers.

The camping area has a water treatment plant, 11,112 feet of water line, two sewage lagoons, 14,255 feet of sanitary sewers, two sewage lift stations and 15,850 feet of roadway.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers turned over the new campground to the Ohio Department of Natural Resources to be operated as a part of the 7,000-acre state park much like the facilities at Delaware, Dillon and Mosquito state parks.

Deer Creek State Park is about 20 miles west of Circleville off Ohio 207.

Say white slave ring broken

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The FBI announced today the arrests of 10 persons in connection with what it said was a white slave ring operating in Ohio, West Virginia and New York.

Frederick C. Fehl, special agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said the arrests were made on warrants issued after a federal grand jury in Cleveland returned indictments Thursday.

He said the indictments charge 17 persons with a total of 90 counts in violation of the federal white slave traffic act, interstate transportation in aid of racketeering for prostitution and conspiracy.

Progressive school plans to enter Jaycee olympics

Students of the Fayette Progressive School will compete in a special olympic competition Saturday at Teays Valley High School in Ashville. The program, which begins at 10 a.m. is sponsored by District 43 of the Ohio Jaycees.

Some 25 students from the school here will participate in athletic competition, including a 50-yard dash, softball throw, long jump, high jump and 300-yard run. The events are open to students eight years of age and older.

The program is being held in conjunction with similar competitions under the direction of Jaycee organizations nationwide. Top finishers in District 43 will be invited to participate in the Ohio Jaycee Olympics held later in the summer. The district includes Washington C. H., Ashville, Chillicothe, Groveport and Circleville.

City police monthly report shows 39 criminal arrests

Washington C.H. police officers during the month of April totaled 39 criminal arrests, 107 traffic arrests and investigated 765 incidents, according to the monthly report issued by Police Chief Rodman Scott.

Of the 765 incidents, the most common were incidents involving juveniles, 67; accidents, 65; theft, 61; suspicious persons-cars, 56; and lost and found articles, 54.

During the month, Washington C.H. police officers arrested 9 persons for disorderly conduct, 8 for misdemeanor check fraud, 4 for assault, 4 on bench warrants, 3 for intoxication and 3 for breaking and entering.

The 39 criminal arrests for the month of April 1974 is a decrease from the 45 arrests for the same period in 1973.

UNSAFE VEHICLE citations, which included those arrested for driving cars having unsafe bumper heights, topped the list of traffic offenses during the month with 42 arrested offenders. Making excessive noise resulted in 9 arrests, speeding, 8; driving while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs of abuse, 8; and no operator's license, 8.

The 107 arrests for traffic violations during April, brings the total for 1974 to 290. In 1973, 66 persons were arrested during April and the total stood at 287.

Property damage resulting in auto mishaps during the month, was estimated by Police Chief Scott at $9,482, bringing the total so far to $62,877. Damage for April last year was $16,915.

Value of property reported stolen during the month totaled $2,298.14.

Value of property recovered was $873. Vandalism was responsible for a reported $268.50 damage in April, 1974.

Nixon tape case

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., that he will continue to guarantee Jaworski's freedom in the Watergate investigation.

—An Internal Revenue Service spokesman said IRS has declined to supply the House Judiciary Committee with information on Nixon's tax returns.

The spokesman said Treasury Secretary William E. Simon has referred to Saxbe the question of whether it would be proper to supply the information that the committee requested.

To be resolved is whether the committee's constitutional authority over impeachment is superior to specific statutory prohibition in the Internal Revenue code against giving out tax return information, the spokesman said.

After the House committee's session, Doar repeated the criticism of the White House tapes he had delivered to the members.

"I am concerned about their accuracy and about the judgments of the President and his counsel on matters of relevance," he said.

Doar's assessment of the White House transcripts is based on comparisons with transcripts produced by the committee from tapes of the same conversations it got from the special prosecutor.

Damaging incident brings suspended jail sentences

Two young Washington C.H. men received suspended jail sentences and large fines in Municipal Court Thursday after they pleaded guilty to charges of criminally damaging or endangering of property.

Judge Reed M. Winegardner fined Mark Haines, 18, of 1030 S. Hinde St., and Jeffrey L. Vandergriff, 18, of 524 Third St., $200 each and suspended 30-day jail sentences.

The two were arrested by Fayette County Sheriff's Deputy Donald L. Cox Thursday morning.

WHILE responding to a complaint at 3:26 a.m. Cox observed the defendants walking along Ohio 41-S near the Mini-Bar. Noticing that one of them had a severe cut on his left wrist, the deputy transferred the subjects to Fayette Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Upon investigation, it was determined that the subject had cut his wrist while breaking into an unoccupied home near the area where they were walking.

Haines was treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital for his injury.

Charles Cooper filed three charges which were heard Thursday.

Clark Redding, Louisville, Ky., was fined $15 after he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile in areas of the Deer Creek Wildlife Area where such vehicles are prohibited.

David A. Jordan, and Glenn E. Darst, of Rt. 1, Mount Sterling, each forfeited $25 bond on the same charge.

Miami sorority receives $278 for memorial fund

OXFORD — An American Cancer Society contribution of nearly $280 in memory of a Miami University student has been made from proceeds of the recent All-Greek Songfest sponsored by Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority on Miami's Oxford Campus.

Established as an annual campus friendship event for benefit purposes, the Songfest last year raised $100 for the Office of Minority Student Affairs. This year, it was to be a Cancer Society contribution in the name of Marta Ann Schaeper, Washington C. H., who died Feb. 18. She had been a sophomore at the time of her withdrawal from school last fall.

The check for $278.53 presented to Delta Delta Delta sorority for forwarding to the American Cancer Society included $59.83, which had been received in pennies in voting for Songfest contestants.

Overall trophy in the Songfest, reflecting enthusiasm, donations and general excellence of performance went to Kappa Sigma fraternity and Pi Beta sorority. Judged best in stage presence were Lambda Chi Alpha and Gamma Phi Beta. Separate awards for musical difficulty and musical quality went to Sigma Phi Epsilon and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Shrine observing 'Hospital Week'

International Shrine Hospital Week is being observed in Ohio this week as a tribute to those who have supported "the world's greatest philanthropy" during its almost 52-year history.

Charles A. Dinwiddie, illustrious potentate of Aladdin Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, said the temple's more than 14,300 members will join with their 900,000 fellow Nobles across the country this week to give thanks for the vision which resulted in the establishment of the Shrine's 19 crippled children's hospitals and three burns institutes.

The Washington C. H. Shrine Club donates hundreds of dollars per year toward the hospital fund. The Shriners raise funds through several projects, including the beef barbeque during Old Fashioned Bargain Days.

Since the first Shrine Hospital was opened Sept. 16, 1922, at Shreveport, Louisiana, more than 169,000 children from all parts of the world have been treated, "restored to health and well being, or materially aided" — without cost of any kind to the child or the family, Dinwiddie said.

Pistol match slated Sunday

A public pistol match has been scheduled Sunday afternoon at the Fayette County Fish and Game Association's range on Stafford Road.

Phil French said the match will begin at 12 noon and continue until 5 p.m. All types of pistols will be accepted for competition in the match and cash prizes will be awarded. The participants will be firing from a range of 25 yards.

Sunday's public match marks the first since Fish and Game Association members completed improvements in the range facilities.

The public is invited to participate in shooting events such as this, but non-members are prohibited from using the range facilities at other times, French said.

THE FREE treatment of orthopedic and burns patients is financed by the contributions and legacies of Shriners and non-Shriners. Not a cent of government money is used.

The little patient, who may be of any race, creed or nationality, must be under 15 years of age and sponsored by a Shriner.

During the first 51 years of service, the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospitals have chalked up 15,329,856 patient days in their brief history. More than $75 million were spent in hospital construction costs and approximately $274,142,000 in operating expenses between 1922 and 1974. The 1974 operating budget is nearly $40 million.

Each Shriners Hospital, in addition to having the most modern equipment, is both a school and a home away from home. Everything possible is done to give the patient a normal life, including a happy and pleasant atmosphere with a "where love comes first" philosophy. Everything that the youngster may require while hospitalized... clothing, toilet articles, laundry, linen, barbering, food, dental care, braces, crutches, medical treatment, schooling and other necessities — is provided without cost to the family.

The Aladdin potentate said orthopedic cases over the years have averaged about $1,700 each. Burns treatment is much more costly, running between $10,000 and $12,000 on an average. One case cost in excess of $100,000.

Columbus area youngsters, who qualify because of type of handicap, neediness of the family and age, are admitted to either the Burns Institute at Cincinnati or the Orthopedic Unit at Lexington, Kentucky. The Cincinnati facility observed its 10th Anniversary in February, 1974, and reported it had treated 950 patients from five countries, 35 states and 104 temples. Sixty of them would not have survived without the specialized treatment provided, Dinwiddie said.

HAPPY PATIENT — Five-year-old Laurie of Estherville, Ia. is one of the 6,000 patients treated free of charge each year by Shriners Hospitals For Crippled Children. Shrine Hospitals in the United States, Canada and Mexico celebrate International Shrine Hospital Day Sunday, May 19. They are in their 52nd year of treating children of all races and creeds. At the age of five-months, Laurie had to have both feet amputated following injuries by fire.

Man convicted in field run

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Dennis Purcell, 23, of suburban Cheviot, who already had been fined $100 for running onto the field at Riverfront Stadium May 7 and interrupting a Cincinnati Reds baseball game, was convicted of resisting arrest Wednesday in connection with the same incident.

Purcell was fined another $50. Police said the man was unable to pay the fine and is serving it out in jail.

Claim drive-in public nuisance

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Clark County Prosecutor James Berry says the Showboat drive-in theater is a public nuisance and he has asked a court to order its closing.

Berry said in a suit filed Wednesday that the theater's screen is situated so that it's clearly visible from old U.S. 40. He added the theater shows mostly sexually-oriented films.

Delta Air Lines plans expansion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Columbus Airport Commission has agreed to submit a $748,000 facility expansion contract with Delta Air Lines to the Columbus city service director for study.

The airline Wednesday asked the commission for permission to build a $748,000 second-level passenger loading facility at Port Columbus.

Delta said it would pay $606,000 of the cost, either directly or through a five-year rental plan. Part of the project includes an elevator, escalator and security check area.

Springfield man faces execution

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A 26-year-old Springfield man has been sentenced to die in the electric chair Sept. 27 for the Jan. 8 murder of Dwight E. Baker.

Roger L. Strodes was sentenced Thursday for the robbery-killing of the sundry goods store owner.

Strodes' attorney has indicated he will appeal.

TV Viewing

NEW YORK (AP) This Sunday night, ABC-TV is offering a two-hour tape replay of the day's Indianapolis 500, an event some consider a motorized loony display and others a legitimate sports contest.

But come Monday night, the Public Broadcasting Service will offer a far broader look at motor mania with "The Chrome-Plated Nightmare," a one-hour study of America's long love affair with the automobile.

Those who survive Memorial Day traffic might check out this show, though they're herewith warned it is uneven, gabby to a fault and never asks Detroit auto moguls to explain themselves or their wares.

As its title suggests, the program is pretty much a raspberry directed primarily at the raised-fin, chrome-crazy, power-mad golden era of happy motoring—the mid-1950s to 1970.

It's a generally predictable inspection of the attitudes that led to that automotive mess, starting with the obligatory pilgrimage to Los Angeles, where the car is rumored to be king.

But there are some fine segments that offer considerable fuel for thought, particularly producer-narrator Bill Stewart's sporadic use of old auto show newsreels and commercials to make his point.

One of the latter is a classic piece of pop art that seems awfully silly in this day of relatively sober, gas conscious motoring. It's a cartoon of a car snoozing at dawn at a deserted race track.

"The 1969 Plymouth GTX," breathes the announcer, "can devour anything in its path." And for one minute the snoring gradually becomes a snarling roar, the car's features contort and exhaust flames spout.

The show sputters to a close with a limp suggestion by auto critic John Jerome that less driving by more people is the only way we'll save our world from ruin.

It's doubtful that'll happen.

Milwaukee holds first in American League East

By The Associated Press

The Brewers most famous these days in Milwaukee are the ones that play baseball, not make beer.

Long known as the stronghold of suds, Milwaukee's cup suddenly is running over in the American League East pennant race.

"Pressure is what baseball's all about—and we have a team that can keep the pressure on," said Milwaukee's George Scott after a 7-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers Thursday. "We have guys who can run, guys who hit for average and guys who hit for power. We should keep the INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The dispute over whether to reopen qualifications for the May 26 Indianapolis 500-mile race could wind up in court again.

Marion County Superior Court Judge Frank E. Symmes Jr. dismissed a suit Thursday by five car owners denied an opportunity to qualify for the race. Symmes said the owners failed to exhaust the U.S. Auto Club appeals system.

"We're going through the USAC appeal procedure and asking for an immediate hearing. The reason we didn't do that before was the time involved," Wright Huges, a lawyer retained by Roy Woods Racing, said after the decision was announced.

"If we get a USAC hearing and they deny our appeal, then we're right back in court. But we don't even have to have a hearing on that. The filing of the appeal with USAC will give us the right to be back in court."

"And even if our appeal is denied, we still have the million dollar suit," he said, referring to a damage suit still pending against USAC and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

"These guys are going to have to pay for what they did wrong."

Symmes' ruling was based on a technicality. He granted a dismissal motion by defense attorneys for the Speedway and USAC because the owners brought their suit into court before appealing to USAC.

"This decision had nothing to do with the facts of this case—absolutely nothing," Huges said. "To lose on a technicality is really disappointing. Some of these men have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in this race. But if nothing else, we showed them people just don't roll over and lie down," he said.

"We doubt if USAC would act before Sunday. But we're all ready for the race. With a little practice time, we could go for qualifications an hour before the race," he added.

Huges pointed to the money spent by Woods, Rasmussen Racing Products, Carl Gehlhausen, K & L Racing Inc. and Webster Racing Inc. to enter the race and to take their case to court.

He said if further attempts to reopen qualifications fail "Some of these guys will never come back to the race."

Panthers honored at spring picnic

Fred Zechman, track coach, presented first year letters to Gary Combs, Bruce Ervin, Rod Garringer, Bill Warnock, Steve Wilson and Gary Cobb. Second year letter winners included Tim Bretigan, Rick Gleadall, Jeff King, Kirk Neff, John Schlitter, Dave Steinhauser and Joel Vanarsdall. Ernie Perry and Ron Warnock were the only three year letter winners.

Reserve track letters were presented to Alan Fleming, Chris Simpson, Mike Smith, Bill Brundage and Brad Smith.

Four of the thincads received special trophies for their efforts during the year. King was named the most valuable sprinter, Perry received a trophy for being the most valuable distance runner, while Steinhauser and Warnock shared honors for being the most valuable field event participants.

In baseball, Randy Reiber, Tom Riley and Phil Skinner walked off with the top trophies. Reiber was voted the team's most valuable player. Riley was awarded the best batting average trophy, as he is presently batting .471 with one game left. Skinner won the best defensive player award for handling 38 of 39 chances at second base successfully.

First year letter winners were Greg Cobb, Kevin Dunn, P.R. Marshall, Bob Phillips, Kent Smith, Mark Spears, Skinner, manager Kurt Brown and manager Ralph Gebhart. Second year letters were won by Doug Brown, Jay Mossbarger, Tom Pfaff, Steve Tarbutton and John Woodrow. Receiving their third baseball letter were Steve Deere, Dan Jones, Randy Kirk, Riley and Reiber.

Reserve players receiving their first reserve letter were Alan Anshutz, Steve Waters, Joe Black, Rex Coe, Stuart Foster, Sam Grooms, Kevin Hellenthal, Neil Spears, Dwayne Tyree and Ron Zimmerman. Second year winners included Ken Hellenthal, Alan Conner, Ken Darling, Gary English, Jack James, Terry Rodgers and Jeff Ruth.

Each senior member of the track and baseball teams received a trophy. All of the trophies presented were donated by the Miami Trace Boosters Club.

pressure on all the time."

Particularly, Milwaukee's racehorse style has caught the fancy of the hometown fans. The Brewers have literally raced into first place in the East race with a running game.

Against the Tigers Thursday, the Brewers stole a club record five bases and had 11 in the four-game series, which they won, 3-1.

In Thursday's other American League games, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0; the California Angels beat the Kansas City Royals 3-1 and the Chicago White Sox stopped the Texas Rangers 9-6.

Scott's bloop triple capped a two-run seventh inning rally that lifted Milwaukee over Detroit.

Indians 2, Orioles 0
Gaylord Perry pitched a three-hitter and George Hendrick singled home the only run he needed, leading Cleveland over Baltimore.

Jets triumph 2-0 on Noel's two-hitter

In Thursday night's Washington Little League action, the Jets recorded a 9-0 whitewash of the Record-Herald on a two-hitter by Noel and Kaufman's edged Rotary Wheels 6-5.

In his two-hitter, Noel struck out 11 batters and walked just one. His pitching counterpart, Byrd, had 12 strikeout victims, but he walked seven batters.

Clark Lee's home run was the big hit of the game. It was Lee's third home run in two games.

Trailing 6-5, Rotary had runners on second and third with no outs in the final inning. However, a line drive turned into a double play to quickly give Rotary two outs. The final out was recorded on a pop up.

Dodds, Rotary's starting pitcher, struck out 10 batters and walked two in five innings. However, he did not pick up the decision.

In Minor League play, 1st Federal bombed Agric 26-2 and Sagars scored six runs in the final inning to defeat Bumgarner 11-9.

Seventeen of 1st Federal's runs were unearned. Agric pitchers issued a total of 16 walks and hit three batters, as their fielders committed 18 errors in the game. 1st Federal's Marti cracked

Syracuse posts wins over Toledo in IL

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Stanley homered for two runs in the last inning to power Syracuse to a 2-1 International League victory over Toledo Thursday night.

The victory gave Syracuse a sweep of Thursday night's doubleheader. The Chief's won the first encounter 6-5.

Victories recorded by two area teams

In another game, Jeff Merchants clipped Bel Dor Lite 9-3.

Babe Merriman and Ervin Perry were the top hitters for the winners. Merriman was three for four at the plate with three runs batted-in. Perry had two hits, which included a three-run home run, in four times at bat.

Fred Beard was two for three to lead Bel Dor Lite.

Colonial Stair won its first league game of the season by defeating Sugar Creek Packing 20-3, Thursday evening.

Leading the hitting attack for Colonial Stair were Mike Henry and Tony Grooms, who each went four for four at the plate. Flea Merriman also had a perfect night at the plate, as he collected three hits in three official trips to the plate.

Sugar Creek was led by Smith, who had two hits in two plate appearances.

Fourth straight defeat for Cincinnati

Sacrifice fly spells Reds' 5-4 loss

SAN DIEGO (AP) — At the start of spring training, San Diego Manager John McNamara was so displeased with infielder Derrel Thomas' attitude that he considered shunting him to the minors. Now he has become one of the slender second baseman's biggest boosters.

"He's playing great, isn't he?" McNamara judged Thursday night after Thomas hit a run-scoring fly in the 13th inning to give the Padres a 5-4 victory and hand Cincinnati its fourth straight loss. Earlier, Thomas had hit a two-run double to wipe out a 3-1 Cincinnati lead in the sixth inning.

Thomas is averaging .295, has played so well afield that he has established himself as the club's regular second baseman. He has also driven in 16 runs, one less than a slugger such as Willie McCovey.

"I was looking for a screwball and I got one that was up," he said after the basesloaded fly he hit to drive in Enzo Hernandez from third base with the winning run.

The Reds, who stranded 20 runners and wasted 18 hits, were bitter over a last-inning call by third base umpire Nick Colosi.

The stage for the dispute was set after Hernandez led off with a single and took second on Norman's balk.

After Nate Colbert was purposely walked, Rich Morales bunted to Norman, who threw to third in hopes of a forceout. However, Colosi ruled Hernandez safe.

"I cannot believe it," said Cincinnati manager George (Sparky) Anderson. "He (Colosi) couldn't understand why I was out there arguing with him. He said it wasn't even close. Why, Enzo was out by several feet."

attendance for the first 23 dates is 145,120 ahead of the same period in 1973.

"I'm proud of the way we keep coming from behind—we may be in last place but we don't give up," said McNamara. Behind 3-1, the Padres rallied to tie the score 3-3 in the sixth. And they came from behind again in the 12th after Tony Perez singled home a run. In the home half, a walk to Thomas and a single by Bob Barton put runners at first and third with two out before Norman, called out of the bullpen, got Fred Kendall to hit a grounder that rolled through the legs of third baseman Dan Driessen for an error that enabled Thomas to score.

"I don't try any harder against Cincinnati than I do against other teams," said Padre right fielder Bobby Tolan, the Redleg castoff who had four of his club's 12 hits.

He was acquired during the off season in the trade to the Reds of righthander Clay Kirby, who gave up the first three San Diego runs.

Interestingly, the Padres pinned the loss on another former mate, Norman, 3-5, who has lost two nights in a row. The Padres used 22 of their 24 available players. They couldn't use reliever Vicente Romo, who has a stiff arm, and that left only lefthander Randy Jones.

Driessen had four hits for the Reds and knocked in two of their runs, while Kirby and Perez each drove in one with singles.

Union fails in OU vote

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The Student Workers Union failed to gain representation of student employees at Ohio University Thursday because an insufficient number of those eligible to vote cast ballots.

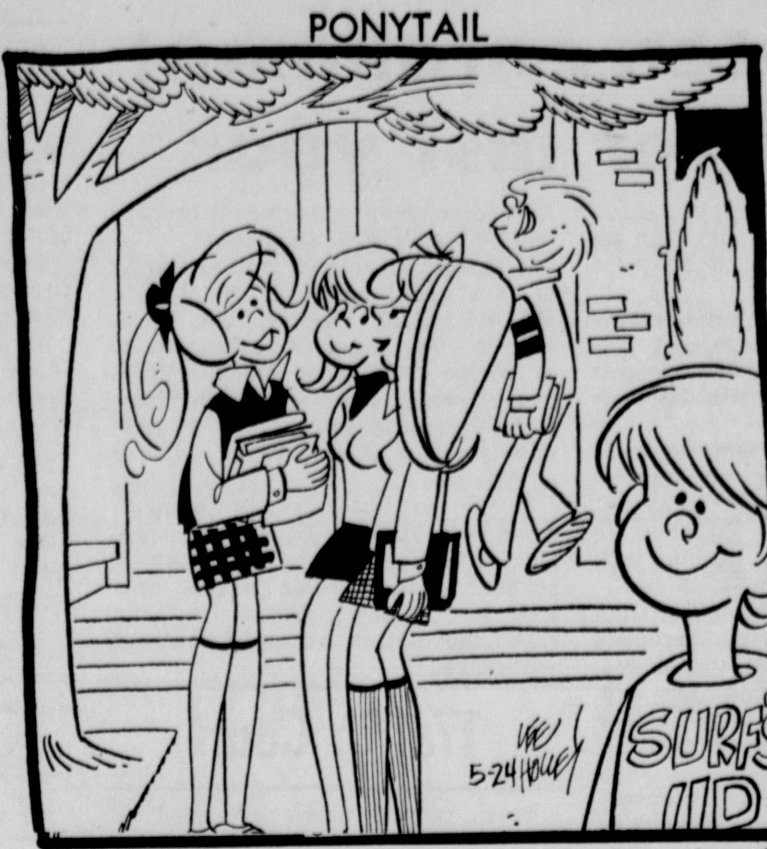

Officials said 799 students voted in favor of the union and 167 voted against. The number of ballots cast, including 128 challenges which were not counted and one ballot that was voided, totaled 1,095.

Under terms of the agreement setting up the election, 1,100 students must have voted for the balloting to be valid.

The university agreed to the representation election after the union conducted a three-day strike earlier this month.

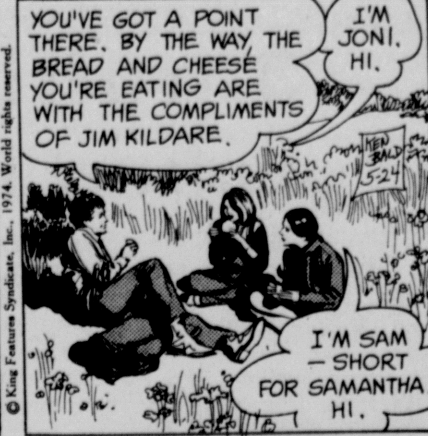

The union agreed that it would not pursue the matter again for at least a year if it failed to win the election.

County kindergarten enrollment shows increase over last year

Two weeks of kindergarten registration in the county schools have resulted in the enrollment of 222 first year students for the 1974-75 school year.

The figure is slightly higher than the number currently attending the

Set rejection of licenses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Liquor Control planned today to reject applications by Sport-service, Inc., for renewal of 19 liquor licenses, a spokesman said.

Sportservice operates outlets at six locations in Toledo, Cincinnati and the Cleveland area.

The department said it was acting under a section of the state Liquor Control Act that permits it to deny renewal if it finds good cause to do so.

The spokesman, Keith Cennamo, said the renewals were refused because the department believes Sportservice may be affiliated with the Emprise Corp., which has been under investigation by the federal government.

3 traffic mishaps probed by officers

A Forest Street resident was charged by Washington C.H. police officers with unsafe backing Thursday morning and an accident involving a van and a truck occurred Thursday afternoon city police reported. The Fayette County Sheriff's Department investigated an county's eight kindergarten programs, and almost 25 per cent more than the number of students enrolled at the same time last year.

During the two-week period county administrators and specialized personnel visited each of the eight schools to encourage parents to register their children.

GUY FORSTER, superintendent; Steven Yambor, assistant superintendent; and Mrs. June Slaughter, elementary supervisor, explained to the parents their role in working with the elementary program.

Miss Leslie Jones and Miss Tana Lucas, speech and hearing therapists and Ronald Lott, school psychologist, interviewed those youngsters who enrolled in order to determine whether or not seemed to have learning disabilities.

It was the first time that the county has ever tested for learning difficulties prior to the beginning of school. Mrs. Slaughter explained that early detection of these problems is essential to the welfare of the student.

"The sooner hearing, speech or motor difficulties are discovered and treated, the more effective the therapy will be," said Mrs. Slaughter.

A breakdown of the enrollment so far is 19 at Madison Mills, 28 at New Holland, 40 at Jeffersonville, 34 at Chaffin, 16 at Jasper, 35 at Staunton, 17 at Wayne, and 33 at Bloomingburg. Parents who have not yet enrolled their children should contact the Fayette County school office, 335-3010, as soon as possible.

Due to the imbalance of enrollment, some students may have to be transferred to other schools. Enrollment of students at the earliest possible date will aid county officials in the scheduling classes to the student's best advantage.

Traffic Court

Three persons were scheduled to appear before Judge Reed M. Winegardner in Municipal Court Thursday on possible traffic violations. Luckie E. Webb, 24, of 318 W. Court St., was fined $50 after he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless operation, and Alice Hiles, 34, of 1424 Lindberg Ave., forfeited $18 bond on a red light citation. Both had been arrested by city police.

Howard L. Dotson, 54, of Comfort, W. Va., forfeited $60 bond when he failed to appear on a charge of driving without a valid operator's license. He had been arrested by Sheriff's deputies.

Jasper School PTO holds final meeting

MILLEDGEVILLE — The Jasper Parent-Teacher Organization held its final meeting of the school year Thursday night at Jasper Elementary School.

On the agenda was the introduction of new officers, discussion of a project to replace the ceilings in two rooms and cancellation of a proposed trip to the Columbus Zoo for the children.

President Marion Stockwell introduced the officers for next year. Taking over his duties as chief executive will be Mrs. Delores Duteil. The new vice president will be Mack Reynolds; secretary, Mrs. Frances Herdman; and treasurer, Mrs. Helen Anderson.

A committee composed of Sid Woodrow, Gary Herdman and Marion Stockwell met recently at the school with Sonny Walters, of Walters Ridge Homes, who has agreed to lower the ceiling in the first and second grade rooms at a cost of $1,114. The project will commence immediately after school has recessed.

A treasurer's report showed that the PTO currently has $1,065.78.

A picnic for the last day of school has preempted the proposed trip to the Columbus Zoo. The change in schedule was mandated by the fact that transportation for the trip is unavailable.

Officers probing check, vandalism incident reports

A Fayette County woman's car was vandalized, sheriff's deputies reported and city police are investigating a bad check received by the Party Shoppe.

A car owned by Louvicia Ann Woodfork, of Bloomingburg, was vandalized sometime between 11 p.m. Wednesday and 1 a.m. Thursday, the Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported.

Someone had broken the distributor cap while the car was parked on Hidy Road.

A bad check for $20 was passed at the Party Shoppe, 219 W. Court St., on May 11. Washington C.H. police officers are investigating the incident.

Patty Hearst, friends believed in Hollywood

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police searching for Patricia Hearst conducted a predawn raid on a Hollywood home, startling two women who were said to match descriptions of Miss Hearst and Symbionese Liberation Army fugitive Emily Harris.

Two sleepy women in pajamas emerged as a force of 50 to 60 police leveled shotguns and tear gas rifles at the house, but police Sgt. Gene Ingram said the women had no connection with the terrorist SLA.

He said police had acted on an anonymous tip, and that one of the women matched a rough description of Mrs. Harris, who is being sought along with her husband, William, and the newspaper heiress.

Meanwhile in San Francisco, the parents of Miss Hearst are said to be outraged by the comments of law officers who in the past week have said the young heiress is an armed and dangerous fugitive.

Cecil Poole, a former U.S. attorney who met with Randolph and Catherine Hearst on Thursday, said the parents of Patricia, 20, were furious about "the excessive statements of law enforcement personnel, particularly statements by the Los Angeles district attorney."

Poole said he agreed with the Hearsts that the flood of "prejudicial" charges ought to be stopped, and said that to continue them might increase the chances that Miss Hearst, who was kidnapped more than 3½ months ago, would not surrender.

"She was a young girl who was kidnapped," said Poole of Patricia. "Something happened to her and now they are calling her a fugitive on the run."

Meanwhile, police and FBI agents continued without success their massive search for Miss Hearst and two Symbionese Liberation Army companions. Pleas for her to surrender increased.

"Throw away those guns!" urged the Hearst-owned San Francisco Examiner. "If you just let yourself be killed it is going to be a waste; your whole thing is going to be a waste," said a taped plea issued by Patricia's two younger sisters, Anne, 18, and Vicki, 17.

Referring to last Friday's fiery shootout in Los Angeles in which six SLA members died, Vicki said: "I just don't want that to happen to you." But she added: "I'm telling you right now the police and the FBI aren't all that sympathetic anymore. And they've taken a lot of trash from these guys (the SLA). And I just don't think they are going to sit around and take much more of it."

Felony charges including assault, robbery and kidnapping were filed Wednesday against Miss Hearst and the Harrises, a white couple the FBI has said are the last SLA members it seeks.

Meanwhile, one of Miss Hearst's alleged victims testified for an hour Thursday as a federal grand jury opened its investigation of an April 15 SLA bank robbery in San Francisco. Police said Thomas Matthews, 18, was held captive for 12 hours last week by Miss Hearst and the Harrises when the three became involved in an alleged shoplifting attempt at a suburban Los Angeles sporting goods store.

Duke Ellington succumbs at 75

NEW YORK (AP) — Jazz bandleader and composer Duke Ellington died early today in Columbia Presbyterian Hospital after undergoing treatment for pneumonia. He was 75.

Ellington, who had been hospitalized for several months for a respiratory infection that de-several hundred inner city school children and Julie Nixon Eisenhower.

Born Edward Kennedy Ellington, the "Duke" was known the world over and was the first jazz musician to receive the French Legion of Honor, an award he was presented in July of 1973.

Asked how many countries had given him awards, he replied: "I never count awards. I only enjoy. I don't even count the bars when I write, do I? Oh, I guess I have to."

Ellington, a tall, urbane, baggy-eyed piano player, wrote more than 1,000 compositions. Among them are some that almost everybody can hum—"In My Solitude," "Let A Song Go Out of My Heart," "Don't Get Around Much Any More," and dozens more.

In later years he poured out a prodigious stream of longer orchestral pieces, tone poems, sacred works, choral pieces, movie, television and ballet scores and even an opera or two. He composed in taxicabs, in restaurants, on buses, and often worked until dawn after playing night club dates on his never-ending tours of the world.

In 1965, when he was 66, a Pulitzer Prize jury recommended him for a special award, but the advisory board rejected it.

"Fate is being kind to me," Ellington said. "Fate doesn't want me to be famous too young."

DUKE ELLINGTON

veloped into pneumonia, died at 3:10 a.m., according to a hospital spokesman.

Ellington had been unable to attend celebrations for his 75th birthday in New York last month. The celebration brought together 35 jazz groups and soloists in a tribute to the jazz master.

In February, Ellington had returned to Washington, where he grew up, and performed for

Johnson security cost $5.9 million

WASHINGTON (AP) — While one House committee says federal expenditures reached $5.9 million on former President Lyndon B. Johnson's property, another has promised close scrutiny for all new presidential expenditures.

The House Government Operations Committee said Thursday that most of the funds for the Johnson properties were spent on security facilities. The committee had disclosed earlier that $17.1 million was spent on homes used by President Nixon, also mainly in the name of security.

The committee said the Department of Defense and the White House Communications Agency spent an estimated $3,573,000 for communications support in connection with the LBJ Ranch in Texas.

The $5.9 million also includes $770,000 for Johnson's Austin, Tex., office; $15,000 for installation and repair of Secret Service facilities at Johnson's

Haywood Ranch where he occasionally went boating; and $34,000 for work at a hangar on the LBJ ranch "to accommodate news conferences, television broadcasts and the entertainment of foreign dignitaries."

Embezzlement charge facing store employee

A Washington C.H. woman was arrested Thursday by city police on a charge of embezzling from the Buckeye Mart store, 100 Washington Square.

Dianne Jackson, 25, of 624 Gibbs Ave., has been charged by city police with embezzlement. She was released on her own recognizance, pending a hearing in Washington C.H. Municipal Court.

She was arrested on a warrant filed by John H. Roszmann, assistant Fayette County prosecuting attorney. She has been employed in the office at Buckeye Mart for the past two years.

Bostonians in state of shock; baked beans leaving town

BOSTON (AP) — For Bostonians, it's the end of an era. The baked bean is leaving town.

The Friend Brothers bean factory, the city's last, is moving to Portland, Maine, on May 1.

Friend Brothers has been producing Boston baked beans since 1928 with a recipe handed down through the Friend family from Pilgrim days. But the factory was sold last year to William Underwood Co. of Portland, and thus the move.

"I was shocked when I learned the news," said Ken Spaulding, 62, assistant manager of the bean plant in Malden, a Boston suburb. "I've been with the Friend Brothers since 1930—that's 44 years—and I expected to keep working here until I retired."

The Underwood company, which produces B&M baked beans at Portland, is closing down that facility and has offered to take on some of the Malden plant employees at its new Portland factory.

When the Pilgrims settled in New England, baked beans became a popular dish for Sunday suppers. Because cooking was not permitted on the Sabbath, the bean pot was put on the fire Saturday night and kept warm into Sunday.

Pilgrim Hester Friend's recipe traveled the generations of her family until Leslie, Victor and Robert Friend decided to open their factory in the Boston area, Spaulding said.

By the 1930s, there were five Friend bean factories in downtown and suburban locations.

In the early 1960s, however, the family business was sold, and all but the Malden factory were closed as the firm changed hands several times.

"Years ago, there used to be Homemakers Beans and Friend's . . ." Spaulding said. "Of course, Homemakers was never as big an operation as Friend's."

"Then Homemakers was purchased by an outside outfit, and they stopped making beans here. Now Friend's is leaving, too."

"It just doesn't seem right."

Edited transcripts labeled inadequate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee has been advised by its two top lawyers that it can't rely on White House-edited transcripts in its impeachment inquiry.

Errors, omissions and deletions in the 46 conversations released April 30 by President Nixon make them unsatisfactory as evidence, say chief counsel John Doar and Albert Jenner, the chief minority counsel.

They told the committee Thursday there was "an absolute need" to get the tapes of the conversations if the impeachment verdict is to be based on the best evidence.

Nixon spurned a committee subpoena for 11 Watergate tapes Wednesday and said he would not respond to any other subpoenas it may issue for Watergate material. He turned over the transcripts in response to an earlier subpoena for tapes.

In another Watergate arena, today is the deadline for White House response to subpoenas for papers left behind by two former Nixon aides when they still were working for the President. U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell has said he might have to throw out charges against the five defendants in the Ellsberg break-in case if all relevant material is not provided.

The U.S. Court of Appeals ruled Thursday that the Senate Watergate committee had not shown sufficient need for five White House tape recordings it had sought in a 10-month legal battle.

SUBPOENA REJECTED — White House attorneys Jack McCall, left, and James D. St. Clair leave session of House Judiciary Committee's impeachment inquiry. In a letter to the committee, President Nixon rejected the panel's subpoena for additional White House tapes.

Absenteeism delays immunity vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Senate has scheduled a vote Wednesday on a bill taking away the state's immunity from lawsuits. Heavy absenteeism delayed a planned vote Thursday.

Sen Robert J. Corts, R-13 Elyria, asked that the vote be delayed when he noticed that only 20 of the 33 senators were present at the time. He said two others showed later.

"At the time it came up, I only counted 20 votes," he said. "I found out later the others were here."

The bill requires a two-thirds majority, or 22 votes, since it creates a new Court of Claims to replace the existing Sundry Claims Board.

Currently, the claims board hears cases against the state, which they sometimes pay as "moral obligations" since the state cannot be sued.

In other actions, the House finally concurred in Senate amendments to a bill allowing bars and taverns to sell lottery tickets. But the vote was close, despite the fact the only Senate amendment took an "S" from the word "chapters."

Rep. Charles L. Fry, K-75 Springfield, attempted to use the concurrence proposal to question about the possibility of kickbacks between tavern owners and the Ohio Lottery Commission, which will decide what bars can sell tickets.

Fry was finally cut off by House Speaker A. G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, who noted that House rules limited debate to concurrence and not the bill itself. Fry was not present when the bill passed the House Feb. 28.

Concurrence failed on the first vote, 49-28, with 50 votes needed for passage. Late arrival Rep. William Hinig, D-96 New Philadelphia, provided the needed 50th vote. Later still, Rep. Tom Fries, D-35 Dayton, gave it 51.

Both houses passed three proposals before adjourning for the weekend.

The Senate approved 27-0 a bill to establish a municipal court in Auglaize County where two county courts were created following abolishment of justices of the peace in Ohio.

Sen. Walter L. White, R-12 Lima, said county commissioners asked for the new court partly because a judge could not be found to sit on one of the county court benches.

Senators also approved 20-9 a House bill permitting townships and municipalities to combine to contract for ambulance services. The bill goes back to the House for approval of Senate changes.

The Senate rejected 23-0 a conference committee report on a proposed constitutional resolution to permit the taxation of recreation lands on use rather than market value.

Sponsors said a new conference committee may be sought to resolve differences between the two houses. The House has insisted on an amendment that would deny the tax relief to any landowner practicing discrimination.

Another Senate bill, passed 21-7 would allow pawn brokers to increase their interest from 3 to 5 per cent on loans between $25 and $50. Currently they can charge 5 per cent on loans up to $25 but only 3 per cent on those above.

Passed in the House were bills that would:

—Simplify the method of qualifying hospital records as authentic evidence (84-0).

—Authorize contributions of county funds to non-profit organizations for services to aged residents (81-1).

—Allow funeral directors and embalmers to remove and preserve eyes from dead persons who have stipulated they wanted them donated as an anatomical gift (85-0).

But the defendants' arguments that they wanted White House documents apparently held some sway.

Gesell is among a generation of Americans whose parents used a book "The Child From Five to Ten" as a guide to bringing them up. In his case the teaching was more direct: the author was his father, noted Yale child psychologist and pediatrician Arnold Gesell.

A Yale graduate himself, Gesell made a name as an antitrust lawyer with Covington & Burling, one of Washington's most renowned law firms.

Placed on the federal bench by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968, Gesell quickly developed a reputation as one of the most scholarly judges in the courthouse. He is one of the few who write their own opinions in total.

Rites conducted in Logan for Record-Herald editor

LOGAN — Services for veteran newspaper editor Robert S. Rochester, 65, of 634 Albin Ave., Washington C.H., were held at 1 p.m. Friday in the Roberts Funeral Home, Logan, with the Rev. Robert Shadley, pastor of the Lancaster First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Mr. Rochester, who launched his newspaper career in Logan in 1931 and had served as editor of the Record-Herald in Washington C.H. for the past 18 years, died Wednesday in the emergency room at Fayette Memorial Hospital after suffering a severe heart attack.

A Hocking County native, Mr. Rochester had been ill for the past week and was being treated in the hospital's emergency room Wednesday and awaiting transfer to a Columbus hospital when he died at 1:34 p.m.

Pallbearers for the burial in the family plot in Oak Grove Cemetery were Larry R. Joseph, Lawrence T. Webb, Kenneth L. Dollison, Dan B. Dollison, David L. Roberts and Thomas E. Roberts.

Spotlight shines on Judge Gesell

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the many Watergate court cases to date, the name of a single federal judge has gained national recognition. Now, U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard A. Gesell is beginning to share John J. Sirica's spotlight.

Two days ago, he ordered President Nixon to release the personal White House files of former aides John D. Ehrlichman and Charles W. Colson for their defense in the Ellsberg burglary case. He set today as a deadline and said: "I will allow no continuances."

Other judges tend to tread more gently. Last Monday, in ordering the White House to turn over tapes of 64 conversations for the Watergate cover-up trial, Judge Sirica allowed 11 days for a response and said that if an appeal is filed his order would be postponed automatically.

In Gesell's courtroom, things move.

When he presided over the recent trial of former White House appointments secretary Dwight L. Chapin, the all day was a punishing 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., with exactly one hour, 15 minutes for lunch.

Gesell has a facility to cut short long-winded lawyers. During one of the pretrial conferences in the Ellsberg conspiracy case, he was told national defense would be used as an argument to justify the rifling of the office of Dr. Lewis Fielding, the psychiatrist who had treated Daniel Ellsberg.

"A very simple conspiracy is alleged," said the 63-year-old, tall, white haired, portly judge. "What is relevant is whether or not there was an agreement to bust into the doctor's home and whether they did. All this talk about national defense and the Russians and everything else has nothing to do with the case."

Deaths, Funerals

Rev. S. R. Foltz

The Rev. S.R. Foltz, 87, died at 12:30 p.m. Thursday in the Green Acres Nursing Home, Stafford Rd., where he had been a resident.

Born in Virgo County, Ind., Mr. Foltz had been a pastor of the Greenfield United Brethren Church, and a conference superintendent. He was also a retired carpenter.

He is survived by two sons, George and John (Digger), both of Rt. 3, Greenfield; three brothers, John and Laurin of Terre Haute, Ind., and Verna, of Van Wert; and five grandchildren. Two brothers and four sisters preceded him in death.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Murray Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Robert K. Blaine and the Rev. Harley Brewer officiating. Burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Effie S. Hilliard

GREENFIELD — Mrs. Effie S. Hilliard, 74, Rt. 1, Bainbridge, died at 4 a.m. Thursday in the Ross County Medical Center, Chillicothe.

Born in Ross County, Mrs. Hilliard was the widow of James Hilliard, who died in 1961.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Patterson, Rt. 1, Bainbridge, and Mrs. Gladys Noe, of Marion; nine grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Paugh and Mrs. Lillie Shadley, both of Rt. 1, Bainbridge, and a brother, Jess Shadley, Rt. 1, Bainbridge.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Anderson-Struve Funeral Home, Greenfield, with the Rev. Theodore Mendenhall officiating. Burial will be in Bainbridge Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Mary E. Meyer

SABINA — Catholic Mass for Mrs. Mary E. Meyer, 70, a native of the Sabina community, will be held at 9 a.m. Friday in Tuscon, Ariz., and graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Milldegeville-Plymouth Cemetery, with the Rev. Fr. Richard L. Krug.

Calling hours will be from 7 until 9 p.m. Sunday at the Littleton Funeral Home, Sabina.

A resident of Tuscon for the past 10 years, Mrs. Meyer lived on a farm near Jeffersonville for many years and was a graduate of Sabina High School.

GEORGE W. HAMMAN — Services for George W. Hamman, 78, Rt. 2, Williamsport, were held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland, with the Rev. Michael Wright officiating. Mr. Hamman, a former who had spent his entire life in Ross County, died Tuesday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Brown's Chapel Cemetery, Clarksburg, were Willard Peterson, Frank Moats, James Hamman, George Minshall, James Sykes and Dr. Paul Fenstermaker.

JOSEPH T. CASSELL — Services for Joseph T. Cassell, 64, of Springfield, a former resident of Washington C.H., were held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Parrett Funeral Home, with the Rev. Glenn DeHart officiating. Mrs. Goldie Conley sang two hymns.

An associate minister of the Full Gospel Community Church, Mr. Cassell died Tuesday.

Pallbearers for the burial in Brown's Highlawn Memory Gardens were Edgar, Charles and Samuel Malone, Mark Allen, Douglas Cottrill and Anthony Hicks.

The flag which draped the casket of the World War II veteran was folded by Paul Strevey and Clarence Hackett, and was presented to his son, Charles.

Mainly About People

Carl Arehart, Marchant-Luttrell Rd., is a surgical patient in Riverside Hospital, Columbus. He is in Room 6008.

The name of Donald P. Foster was omitted from a list of eight persons who were appointed to the Fayette County Democratic Executive Committee. The article was carried in Thursday's edition of The Record-Herald.

Arab terrorist bares death plans

TIBERIAS, Israel (AP) — A captured Palestinian terrorist whose suicide squad was intercepted by Israeli security forces in the Golan Heights says the band's mission was a Maalot-style raid and possible massacre at fishing villages on the Sea of Galilee.

The terrorist, who spoke some English, and another member of the eight-man squad were seized Thursday by Israeli soldiers participating in a security screen thrown up to protect border areas from guerrilla attacks.

They disclosed under interrogation the presence of the others, and the Israelis killed all six in a battle four miles inside Israel.

The captives said they belonged to the Popular Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, the same group that sent three terrorists to attack a school in Maalot last week. Twenty-one youngsters, five adults and the three

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — "We're not starving—yet," said Neil, a victim of the crippling general strike by Northern Ireland's Protestant militants in its 10th day today.

A Protestant, Neil is a craftsman in a Belfast factory. He said he has not been paid since the strike began.

"If the strike goes on for much longer there are going to be riots, looting and killing as people are forced to take what they can find or starve," he said.

Neil is not his real name. He asked not to be identified "because it could mean bad troubles for me and my family."

Protestant thugs have used strongarm tactics to enforce the strike, threatening men like Neil who would prefer to work.

Neil was "asked to stay away" from his downtown plant last week. He wasn't threatened directly, he said, but he knows strikers have beaten up men who defied the shutdown or set afire their homes.

The strike, called by Protestant extremists to kill plans to give the predominantly Roman Catholic Irish Republic a voice in the affairs of Northern Ireland, a British province, has brought industry and commerce to a virtual standstill.

Claim Xenia tornado victims can't qualify for assistance

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The majority of victims of tornadoes that struck 10 states in the first week of April will fail to qualify for a new federal program offering assistance grants up to $5,000. The Dayton Daily News quotes a federal official as saying in a copyrighted story in today's edition.

"We are trying to include as many people as possible," said the source in the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration in Washington. "But the new law is very restrictive once you closely analyze its meaning."

The program which permits the grants to families is contained in the Federal Disaster Relief Act of 1974, signed by President Nixon on Wednesday.

The unnamed source estimated that 100 to 500 of 6,077 heads of households who contacted the FDAA in Ohio since the tornadoes will qualify for the new grants.

Farmer wins congratulations for breaking lamb chop mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has sent warm congratulations on behalf of President Nixon to a Pipestone, Minn., farm couple for breaking the lambchop barrier.

The feat: Mr. and Mrs. John Wichern produced 200 lambs in one year from a flock of 100 ewes. The mother sheep, obviously, had to average twin births in each delivery.

"On behalf of the President, congratulations on an achievement that can only be described as incredible," Butz told the Wicherns today in a telegram.

The couple was to be honored today by the Pipestone Chamber of Commerce. Its agricultural committee for some years had a standing prize of $1,000 to any sheep producer who could come up with a 200 per cent lamb crop.

"You have done more than win the $1,000 award offered by the agricultural committee of the Pipestone Chamber of Commerce," Butz said in his telegram. "You also have established a new horizon and have served notice to the entire sheep industry in the United States what a proper breeding, feeding and management program can do."

A spokesman for Butz said Minnesota

Ford and Nixon hold quick meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Both the White House and Vice President Gerald R. Ford are reluctant to say much about a hastily called conference between President Nixon and Ford.

An aide to Ford said the 45-minute meeting initiated by the President late Thursday morning made the vice president's schedule run late, leaving him "a little uptight."

Ford appeared to be in an unusually somber mood when he arrived in New York for a speech Thursday.

Arab terrorist bares death plans

TIBERIAS, Israel (AP) — A captured Palestinian terrorist whose suicide squad was intercepted by Israeli security forces in the Golan Heights says the band's mission was a Maalot-style raid and possible massacre at fishing villages on the Sea of Galilee.

The terrorist, who spoke some English, and another member of the eight-man squad were seized Thursday by Israeli soldiers participating in a security screen thrown up to protect border areas from guerrilla attacks.

They disclosed under interrogation the presence of the others, and the Israelis killed all six in a battle four miles inside Israel.

The captives said they belonged to the Popular Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, the same group that sent three terrorists to attack a school in Maalot last week. Twenty-one youngsters, five adults and the three plummeted to critical lows. Food stocks, especially fresh meat and vegetables, are diminishing rapidly and the stores that are still open report panic buying of canned goods.

There was a sign of a slight letup in the extremist grip Thursday night, when leaders of the Ulster Workers' Council, coordinating the strike, agreed to let power plants continue operating at their minimal scale. Supplies are at 30 per cent of normal.

Neil, 29, lives in a comfortable two-story house in Belfast's northern outskirts. Protestants and Catholics have lived peacefully side by side in the area since sectarian strife erupted in 1969. It was a refuge from the troubles.

Yet the brutal realities still reach them. Neil lost an eye when terrorists bombed his factory two years ago. He was off work for 16 months and underwent two major operations and a half-dozen minor ones.

He spent his life savings, then borrowed money from a bank and his parents to support his wife and two infant sons.

Thousands of men and women have been left jobless by the strike, and hardship is widespread. Men willing to try working have lost pay envelopes because factories and businesses shut down.

finish guidelines for the grants next week, the source said. He added that the ability to borrow money from any source, including commercial lenders of the Small Business Administration, would disqualify the applicant.

A middle income family with money set aside to send a child to college "would have a hard time justifying a grant if that money could be used instead to meet a disaster-related need," the source said.

Nor could a worker who was offered employment out of his neighborhood get a grant to buy a new car, he said. "At most, if the job was so poor paying that he couldn't buy a car on time, he might get $600 for a used car," the source said. "A new car wouldn't be a 'necessary' expense."

"Perhaps someone who had high medical expenses and couldn't pay them off because he was crippled or someone who was too young or too old to get a loan could to it," the source said.

Kissinger again meets with Israelis

JERUSALEM (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said today he plans to offer his own compromise proposal aimed at breaking the Syrian-Israeli deadlock over troop limitations on the Golan front.

As he spoke, tank and artillery fire boomed along the front and Israeli and Syrian planes attacked each other's positions on the rocky plateau. The Syrians claimed knocking down three Israeli jets, but the Tel Aviv command said all its planes returned safely.

"We are considering whether approaching the issue of thinning out forces with an American proposal might help matters," Kissinger told newsmen after meeting Israeli leaders for nearly three hours.

Information Minister Shimon Peres said Kissinger was contemplating a middle of the road proposal, which he declined to spell out. But he said the secretary's idea was "a bridging which would take into consideration the particular sharp sensibilities of both sides."

Kissinger introduced an American initiative last week and won both side's approval of a truce line.

A senior U.S. official said Kissinger would return to the Syrian capital later today or Saturday, hoping to wrap up an agreement separating the two countries' hostile armies in the Golan Heights.

Either way, the official said, Kissinger will go home on Sunday—the 28th day of his marathon shuttle diplomacy mission.

The official said Thursday night that Israel and Syria were "considerably closer" to agreement on thinning their forces than they had been 24 hours earlier.

He said the progress came after Kissinger offered suggestions privately to Israeli Premier Golda Meir and later to President Hafez Assad of Syria in 4½ hours of talks.

A little cooler air is moving into Ohio and nearby areas today as a low pressure north of the Great Lakes moves slowly eastward.

Afternoon temperatures will range from the mid 60s in northern Ohio to the low 70s farther south, or about 10 degrees lower than Thursday. Skies will be partly cloudy over the state, and there is a chance of showers near the Ohio River.

The next weather system is a high pressure located early Friday over the northern plains. This high will be moving to the lower Ohio Valley Saturday, and promises to give fair weather for the long holiday weekend. However, temperatures will be below normal with cool nights and mild afternoons.

For tonight, temperatures will drop into the low 50s and 40s along with partly cloudy to clear skies. Readings Saturday afternoon are forecast near 60 along the Lake Erie shore, and 65 to 70 near the Ohio River.

Fair Sunday and Monday with cloudiness beginning Tuesday. Highs Sunday from the mid 60s to low 70s, rising to the 70s by Tuesday. Lows in the 40s, rising by Monday night to the upper 40s and low 50s.

U.S. weather a mixture

By The Associated Press
Light showers and fair skies formed a checkerboard pattern across the nation today, while scattered thunderstorms swept parts of Oklahoma and Ohio.

A tornado destroyed some out-buildings near Aurora, Mo., during the night and another was sighted at Okmuhlee, Okla. Winds gusted to 65 m.p.h. as thunderstorms struck Altus, Okla., and Findlay and Bucyrus, Ohio. Showers sprinkled portions of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and spots in the Southwest.

But skies were clear over the Appalachian Mountain region, the Gulf Coast states, and the Missouri Valley, where the middle section was chilled by unseasonably cold weather.

Cloudy skies prevailed over parts of the Great Lakes region and were scattered from California to the Rockies.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 32 at Bismarck, N.D., to 84 at Phoenix, Ariz.

Colson becomes evangelist

OWOSSO, Mich. (AP) — Charles W. Colson is waging a new campaign, not for politicians but for souls. The former White House special counsel has turned evangelist.

Colson, who has been indicted for conspiracy in the Watergate cover-up and in the burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, presided over a prayer breakfast Thursday before some 300 civic and business leaders in this central Michigan town.

He warned the overflow crowd at a local YMCA of the "pitfalls of pride" and said he'd abandoned his own "damnable pride and ego" to dedicate his life to Jesus Christ.

Of his alleged Watergate involvement, Colson said, "I know I am innocent of all charges."

Colson, 42, who was widely quoted during the 1972 presidential campaign as saying he would "walk over my own grandmother" to re-elect Richard Nixon, said he never imagined becoming involved in the "biggest political cross-fire in American history."

In edited transcripts of White House tape recorded conversations that Nixon released April 30, the President expressed concern over how deeply involved Colson might be in Watergate.

In an April 14, 1973, discussion between Nixon and two White House aides of the Watergate break-in, Nixon said, "Colson is closer to this crew of robbers than anybody else." In another conversation the next day, Nixon said Colson could be tied in "up to his navel" in the cover-up.

American film wins

CANNES, France (AP) — Francis Ford Coppola's "The Conversation," a film about a snooper and his involvement with murder, today received the Golden Palm award at the Cannes Film Festival.

Stock list up sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market, prompted by hopes for an easing in the interest rate spiral, turned in its strongest performance in more than two weeks today.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 6.17 at 811.40, and gainers outstripped losers by 4 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange. Trading volume, active at the opening, slowed by midday as the market approached a three-day holiday weekend.

Melville Shoe was the most active NYSE issue, down 3/4 at 6 1/4. A 148,400-share block changed hands at 6.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .82 at 80.46.

Other Big Board issues on the active list included Aetna Life & Casualty, up 1/4 at 22 1/2, and MGIC Investment, up 1 at 20 1/2. Analysts noted some short covering — repurchase of borrowed shares sold earlier — in such recently depressed glamour issues.

Elsewhere in the glamour sector, Motorola, Philip Morris, Digital Equipment, Texas Instruments, Merck and Xerox all showed gains of more than a point.

See Marsh new Ohio labor head

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Carpenters Union leader Milan Marsh of Youngstown took over the leadership of the Ohio AFLCIO today, ending the 10-year reign of Frank W. King.

Final official vote totals from Thursday's balloting gave the ticket of Marsh and incumbent secretary-treasurer Warren J. Smith 3,014 votes to 1,801 for King's slate.

Smith said his entire slate of 34 vice presidents also won, giving the labor organization a "unified leadership."

The Marsh-Smith slate of executive board members included several from the previous board which had been split by a feud between King and Smith. In accepting the presidency, Marsh told the convention delegates his goal was to unify the state organization.

Smith said Thursday that victory for his ticket would give the organization "a more effective, unified operation—particularly in political and legislative programs."

Say Nixon weathered transcripts

NEW YORK (AP) — Pollster Louis Harris says President Nixon weathered release of the White House tape transcripts and held on to an important positive job rating from 32 per cent of the respondents to a nationwide survey.

"This is significant," Harris said Thursday, "because, by coincidence, all he needs is the support of 34 out of 100 U.S. Senators to avoid being removed from office."

The 1,555 adults were not polled until May 7-8, Harris continued, "until the full impact of the contents of the edited Watergate transcripts had had time to sink in."

"By and large, despite the spate of calls for the resignation of Mr. Nixon by hitherto pillars of conservative, pro-Nixon support, the President did not suffer as much as most observers thought he had."

Harris credited Nixon's continued prestige with the public in foreign affairs for the 32 per cent positive job rating, against 66 per cent who gave Nixon a negative rating and 2 per cent who were not sure. Nixon had a 31 per cent positive score in March and April.

However, 73 per cent of those queried earlier this month believed Nixon had lost so much credibility that it will be hard for him to be accepted as President again. Twenty per cent disagreed and 7 per cent were not sure.

Ohio Perspective

Gilligan plan very displeasing to Perk

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan's supplemental appropriations bill in this election year contains a Cleveland item which doesn't exactly please Mayor Ralph J. Perk.

Perk, the Republican nominee for U.S. Senate in the November election, raised his eyebrows at an appropriation that would have the state take over and operate two financially troubled Cleveland parks.

Gilligan asked the General Assembly for an outlay of $202,494 to restore Edgewater Beach and Gordon parks. The Department of Natural Resources would begin operating them in the summer of 1975.

Perk's initial reaction was that the Democratic governor, who also will be on the November ballot for re-election, is seeking to take over the city's "valuable lakefront property" and restore the parks "with money that came from Cleveland in the first place."

The governor's $43.5 million supplemental appropriations bill is to be financed with anticipated profits from the first year of state lottery operations.

Perk said he would rather have the state share the lottery proceeds with Cleveland and allow its officials and citizens to decide what to do with the money.

"That determination shouldn't be made by someone who lives in Columbus and Cincinnati," he said.

Former astronaut John Glenn's telling "Gold Star Mothers" speech the weekend before the May 7 primary election on the broadcast media went to the microphone with a $5,000 guaranteed donation by a Cleveland lawyer, Jack E. Dempsey, a former Navy pilot.

Dempsey pledged that amount for the radio blitz in reply to the accusation by interim U.S. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum that Glenn had held no job for years.

Apparently other servicemen dug into their pockets to pay for the blitz because only $500 of Dempsey's money was needed.

The blitz was credited by some politicians with giving Glenn the Democratic nomination over Metzenbaum.

Minority members of the General Assembly sometimes vent their frustrations by making proposals even they know aren't going anywhere.

Somehow, it seems to help.

Rep. Fred N. Young, R-38 Dayton, offered the Democratic House Finance Committee an opportunity to back a minority party appropriations bill rather than introduce a new one of its own.

Rep. William E. Hinig, D-96 New Philadelphia, thanked the Dayton Republican, but observed that, "It's just not politically practical."

"Well, when you don't have the horses you just have to depend on reasons," said Young, a wee bit sheepishly.

Money, energy savings ideas

By JEANNIE ANDERSON
4-H Assistant

Food-nutrition projects are among the most popular of the more than 170 projects available to Ohio 4-H'ers.

More than 56,000 girls and boys worked in one or more food preparation or preservation projects during the past year. For the even larger number enrolled for the new 4-H year here are some money and energy saving ideas.

Match your pots and pans to the size of your stove burners.

Put your pots and pans on the range before the heat is turned on.

When possible, use your oven in place of the stove surface units since less heat is lost in a confined area.

Turn your electric range off just before cooking time is up to use residual heat to finish the job and keep food warm before serving.

Use small electric appliances in place of major appliances for specialized jobs. Electric skillets, toasters, waffle irons, popcorn poppers, coffee pots generally use less electricity than a range does on the same job.

Read your appliance manual to find the temperature for your refrigerator and freezer. Keeping food too cold wastes energy.

Pre-heat your oven only when necessary.

When possible, cook several things in your oven at once by taking the average of heat needed and setting the temperature accordingly.

YOUNG PEOPLE having fun together find it difficult to break up without a call for food. And the well-prepared hostess easily meets the challenge with a variety of home-canned foods and a well-stocked freezer. Among the strongest advocates of home canning and freezing are the many many 4-H'ers enrolled in food preservation projects. They never are at a loss for exciting and nourishing foods to delight friends. And the variety is nearly endless as they choose from home preserved fruits, vegetables, meats, jams, jellies, pickles and other goodies. Although home preserved foods fill the needs for quick tasty snacks and spur-of-the-moment get-togethers, they are a boon to nutritious family meals and a blanced budget. And the 4-H'ers find home-canned food much sought after and appreciated when given as gifts.

Now is an excellent opportunity to take this project with fresh fruits and vegetables that will be coming available at this time of year.

You will be proud of all the "goodies" you preserve in your 4-H Food Preservation Project. You will also notice the money saved in your food budget.

Interested adults are also needed to give their knowledge and talents as a 4-H advisors.

For information about the 4-H food preservation program, or help with food preservation methods, contact your County Extension Office at 335-1150.

of school officials' recommendations.

Mrs. Corn asked the Columbus Board of Education to negotiate with the auxiliary in an attempt to include physically handicapped girls. She also asked that the board suspend its participation in the program if the "discrimination" is still in effect at the end of the year.

Board President Virginia Prentice appointed a representative to open talks with Girls State officials to discuss reasons for the policy.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A temporary restraining order blocking subpoenas in an investigation of State Office Tower contracts has been extended through July 1.

State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson issued the subpoenas last month ordering two Columbus banks to turn over personal and business bank records of former Ohio Building Authority Director George F. Busche, and Intraspace Planning Group, Inc., interior designers for the 41-story project.

Busche and officers of Intraspace countersued, accusing Ferguson of a "fishing expedition." Franklin County Common Pleas Judge George Tyack extended his restraining order last week to consider final arguments by both sides.

the illustrated Bible The Conquest of Ai

And Joshua stretched out the spear . . . toward the city (as the Lord had commanded) and they entered . . . and took it. Joshua 8: 18-19

Despite Joshua's orders that there was to be no looting of Jericho, many of the Israelites, led by Achan, the Judean, disobeyed and pilfered its treasures. The Lord was angered. Thus, when Joshua's armies tried to conquer the city of Ai, He permitted them to be defeated. Joshua, desperate, thought God had finally failed him. He prayed and the Lord heard, but insisted that Achan and his men be punished. When this was done, He gave Joshua a plan for taking Ai. Part of his troops were to go before the city while other ranks would occupy its rear. Those in front were to run as if fearful and, when pursued by the Ais, Joshua was to stretch forth his spear and the rearward troops would enter the almost deserted city and destroy it.

COLUMBUS — At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Ohio Baptist Convention, held in Columbus, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
In the light of increasing pressure on the part of homosexuals to gain popular acceptance for their life style and the effort on the part of homosexuals to establish "gay churches" and to have such churches received into the official life of various denominations; to obtain recognition of "gay caucuses" with the denominations; and to ordain avowed homosexuals; it is our opinion that The Ohio Baptist Convention should take a definite position concerning this issue. We believe that homosexuals are persons for whom Christ died and that it is the responsibility and privilege of the Church to minister to them as well as to others; making known to them the gospel of love and redemption as it is in Jesus Christ our Lord. However, we believe that the scriptures clearly teach that homosexuality is a transgression of God's law and that it is contrary to nature and morally wrong. We also believe that to accept homosexuality as a legitimate life style for a Christian does severe violence to the scripture. As American Baptists, we are bound by the New Testament as our rule of faith and practice. Therefore, we must reject "homosexuality" as contrary to God's will and purpose for man on the basis of the scriptural imperatives.

The Ohio Baptist Convention goes on record as opposed to "gay churches" being a part of the life of our caucus", or the ordination of an avowed homosexual in the gospel ministry. We further recommend that the position of The Ohio Baptist Convention be communicated to all American Baptists through the office of our Executive Minister and through a statement released by the American Baptist Magazine and through the Minister's Council of The American Baptist Churches of the USA.

BOSTON (AP) — The Rev. John McLaughlin, the Jesuit priest and presidential aide who recently defended President Nixon's use of profanity, has been called to Boston by his religious superior for "prayer and reflection."
The Rev. Richard T. Cleary, provincial of the Jesuit Fathers of New England, said Wednesday there was a possibility Father McLaughlin could be asked to leave his White House post, or be dismissed from the order, which would not necessarily affect his status as a priest. Father Cleary, who noted Father McLaughlin was living in the Watergate apartments in Washington, questioned whether the priest was living up to his vows of poverty and obedience.
Father McLaughlin recently spoke out in defense of Nixon, saying he was a great moral leader and that his use of curse words was a necessary release mechanism.
Father Cleary, asked if he would agree with Father McLaughlin's defense of profanity, said, "I would be standing up against Moses if I did ... 'Thou shalt not take the name of thy Lord and God in vain'." He said Father McLaughlin was not speaking for the church.

Father Cleary also said he had no record of Father McLaughlin being given permission to live in the exclusive Watergate apartments.
"Speaking for myself, I would not live there," he said, adding that Jesuits usually are required to live in Jesuit communities.
"I will be asking him to take a brief time away for prayer about his situation and reflection with me," Father Cleary said, adding he was asking Father McLaughlin to come to Boston as "soon as he can get time to do it."
Father Cleary said, "I do not intend to hurt him ... I am not saying he is not in good standing as a Jesuit priest."

Staunton Church holds bake sale, plans songfest

The Staunton United Methodist Women will sponsor a bake sale at Buckeye Mart from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Saturday. A wide variety of homemade goods will be available, and all proceeds will be used to fund the purchase of new church doors.
Sunday, the congregation will hold a songfest at the church, located six miles south on U.S. 62. Mrs. Mary Lou Hawkins, chairman of the church music committee, will be in charge of the program which is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.
The congregation is urged to attend and join in singing of their favorite songs. There will be no offering taken.

African bishop lauds U.S. industry there

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A spiritual chieftain of blacks in South-West Africa, invited to take part in church criticisms of a U.S. firm operating in his homeland, had in contrast some words of praise.
"The Americans are doing their best by my people," Bishop Leonard N. Auala said in an interview. "The company men do not want to discriminate. Only because of the apartheid policies, they have to listen." His gentle manner injected a moderating note—and some surprise—into the U.S. church case.

At the same time, however, he condemned the racial separation of apartheid, and said "my people suffer very low wages and difficult conditions. Pay should be according to skilled work, not according to skin."
Despite the problems, he said he strongly opposes efforts to get American firms to withdraw operations in protest to apartheid, saying such action would leave blacks jobless and without means of livelihood.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver V. Flowers, 311 E. Elm St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Natalie, to Chris William Fender, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Coston Fender of Lake City, Fla. Miss Flowers, a graduate of Washington Senior High School in the Class of 1973, is employed at Union 76 station, I-71.

Her fiancé, a 1964 graduate of Lake City High School, is employed by United Van Lines, Saginaw, Mich. No wedding date has been set.

Mothers' Circle has final meet

Members of Mothers' Circle met at Roller Haven for the final meeting of the year, and an evening of fun with their children. Youngsters from the Children's Home were invited as guests, and everyone enjoyed a buffet supper before donning skates, served by the party committee which was composed of Mrs. Leonard Bach, chairman, Mrs. John Enoch, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Sidney Terhune, Mrs. William Pool, Mrs. Shirley Wisecup, Mrs. Warren Craig, Mrs. Allen Puffenberger, Mrs. Ralph Marcy and Mrs. Lawrence Lehman.

Mrs. Charles Tye, president, conducted the brief business meeting during which she presented the gavel to next year's president, Mrs. Jack Persinger.

Mrs. Noble Rumer and Mrs. Don Wald were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Persinger presented Mrs. Tye with a gift from the club in appreciation of her work during the past year.

Mrs. Smith Aid hostess

Mrs. Cecil Smith was hostess when the New Martinsburg Ladies Aid met in her home. Mrs. Nathaniel Tway was the assisting hostess.

"Gratitude for Mothers" was the name of the article presented by Mrs. Robert Bock, and all answered roll call by naming a mother of the Bible days. It was announced that members are to bring either Betty Crocker coupons or trading stamps to the next meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. George Durnell. They will be sent to the Southside Settlement in Columbus.

Cheer cards were sent to Mrs. Nathaniel Tway, Mrs. Eva Jett and Mrs. Thurel Wilson.

"Mother and Womenhood" was the title of an article read by Mrs. Edward Lee Carson, who had a picture of four generations of her family, representing family life. She also read "Measure of a Woman," "Mothers of Jesus' Time," "Beatitudes of the Home," and "Melaicholy Mama." She also conducted a flower and Bible quiz.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Flossie Brooks, Mrs. George Durnell, Mrs. Oscar McCoy, Mrs. Robert Bock, Mrs. Russell Grice, Mrs. Edward Lee Carson, Mrs. Robert Ritter, Mrs. C. A. Wilson and little Stacy Russard, a guest.

Miss Penwell complimented

A wedding shower honoring Miss Jeannie Penwell was held in First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall Thursday evening. Games were won by Mrs. Tom Penrod and Mrs. Chester Howell. A game of 'concentration' was enjoyed by everyone with all prizes going to the guest of honor.

Four cakes, representing four bridesmaids, centered the table. They were decorated and flanked on each side by pink tapers. Cake and punch were served by Mrs. Larry Oates, Mrs. Robert Bachelor and Stan Howell.

Those present were Mrs. Tom Mossbarger, Chris, Linda and Sheri Oates, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Charles

Stemple, Mrs. Carl Krieger, Mrs. Eugene Alkire, Mrs. Bachelor, Mrs. Penrod, Mrs. Ralph Wolford, Mrs. Paul Brunner, Mrs. Charles Hurtt, Mrs. Robert Penwell, Mrs. Chester Howell, Miss Starr Howell, and Mrs. Larry Oates.

Sending gifts were Miss Mabel Briggs, Mrs. Norman Thomas, Mrs. James Vess, Mrs. Ralph Yerian, Betsy and Cheryl Krieger, Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, Mrs. Mary Graves, Jeanne Davis, Susan and Nancy Brunner, Mrs. Kenneth Chaney, Mrs. Gary Roe, Miss Nancy Hurtt and Mrs. Anna Howard.

Miss Penwell and Jerry Howell will be married June 1.

Mrs. Larry Loyd guest speaker for Women's Association

Mrs. Harvey Heironimus, president, presided at the Thursday afternoon meeting of Women's Association of First Presbyterian church in Persinger Hall.

Mrs. Heironimus opened the meeting with an inspirational verse which was followed by the singing of "In Christ There Is No East or West", with Mrs. Gerald Wheat accompanying at the piano. A responsive reading, Scripture from the Book of Ephesians and prayer was offered. Mrs. Marguerite Jenkins gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Heironimus reminded members that the summer medical offering will be taken at the various circle meetings to be turned in by Sept. 10.

Mrs. Larry Loyd, Mission coordinator, presented a very interesting and enlightening program concerning her native country, Colombia, South America. She compared the religious, social, educational customs and the climate of Colombia with these phases of life in the United States as she has become familiar with them since she first came here as a teacher in 1961. She said that her first impression, and the tourist's impression of the United States is that it is a very rich country.

Pleasant View Aid meets

Mrs. Richard Yenger was hostess for the Pleasant View Ladies Aid meeting held at the Pleasant View Church Mrs. Harold Cline presented devotions.

It was announced that the Lawn Fete is planned at the church July 14, and that three Bibles will be presented to graduating seniors Jeff Long, Nancy Bentley and Rosemary Mootz.

The Aid made and took to VA Hospital, Chillicothe, 30 bibles made for use at the hospital.

Miss Thornton honor guest

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thornton and daughter Dianne were hosts at a graduation dinner-party Thursday night, honoring their daughter, Mary Jo, who is a member of the 1974 Class of Miami Trace High School.

Carnations and mums were in a wicker basket and spring flower arrangements were in focal points throughout the home.

A large decorated cake, inscribed with "Class of 1974" was the center of interest.

Guests present were Sheila Gordon, Marlene Braun, Patricia Persinger, Julie Frost, Nancy Benson, Dee Dee Lange, Dawn Schlichter, Cindy Mountcastle, Mariann Arnold, Kim Fleming, Mary Ford, all seniors, and the honor guest.

Virginia Circle meets in Fults home

The Virginia Circle of the Jeffersonville United Methodist Church met in the home of Miss Helen Fults. Mrs. Dorothy Groves, circle leader, opened the meeting with the poem, "This is May." The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison and roll was answered by naming a Bible character.

Mrs. Dale Davidson had charge of devotions and the program. An article from the Upper Room was read and the program topic was "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God."

A picnic will be featured at the June meeting in the home of Mrs. Harold Zimmerman.

A dessert course was served.

Band leader urges music to hurry by TORONTO (AP) — Veteran band leader Benny Louis wants to see piped music installed in the Toronto subway system and the Toronto Transit Commission is interested. Louis, who has been asked by the TTC to submit a report, says the speakers could be arranged in such a way that travelers who didn't want to listen to the music or news reports could easily move out of earshot. He said the system would cost $100,000 to install and $60,000 a year to operate.

Roger Smith served refreshments. The next meeting will be June 10 at 7 p.m.

Gimmick dishes often unsatisfactory

The shelves of many bookstores are crammed with cookbooks whose off-beat titles clamor for attention. And the recipes inside may make you do a double take.

One tells how to make beer soup, another extolls roast turkey coated with peanut butter and a third offers a recipe for sauteed flower blossoms.

The food field has been covered so thoroughly that many authors feel they must try some gimmick to attract attention. Yet there are a number of common sense hits about cooking that many of us don't know; hints that can save you money, cut down on your fuel output and give your taste buds a treat.

The word gourmet, for instance, scares many away because it conjures up an image of food that is prohibitively expensive and all but impossible for the layman to cook. The fact is many of the classic dishes are quite simple to cook and relatively inexpensive — if that term can be applied to any food today.

A friend of mine once remarked that there was one gourmet dish that could be made for about 30 cents — a two-egg omelet. Two dimes will buy the eggs and the remaining 10 cents should cover a pinch of herbs, salt, pepper and a dab of butter to grease the pan.

Anyone who has spent time in New England should recall the boiled vegetable dinners. Operating on the theory that you should skip meat at least one day a week, a farm family I stayed with in New Hampshire set aside Wednesday for one of these specials, featuring a platter piled high with green wedges of young cabbage, crisp carrots and tiny bright red beets.

My host also performed a feat with broccoli that bears repeating here.

BROCCOLI EGG DIVAN
1 Bunch Broccoli
4 hard-cooked eggs
½ teaspoon salt, divided
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 can (10½ oz) condensed cheddar cheese soup
1-3rd cup milk
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

To prepare broccoli, cut off large leaves and bottom of stalk. Wash well. If stalk is more than ½ inch in diameter, make 2 lengthwise slits almost to flowerets. Cook broccoli, uncovered in boiling salted water till tender, about 15 minutes. Drain. Arrange broccoli, stems toward the center in a 10-inch pie plate. Slice eggs crosswise and lay in layers over broccoli. Sprinkle with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper. Mix undiluted soup with milk till smooth. Pour over broccoli and eggs in pie plate. Mix together bread crumbs, melted butter and remaining ¼ teaspoon salt. Sprinkle over cheese sauce. Bake in 375-degree oven 20 minutes till cheese sauce bubbles and bread crumbs are slightly browned. Serves 4. Good with a chilled dry white wine.

INMATES STATE DEMANDS — Prisoner spokesmen for 46 inmates of the Jackson County Jail at Kansas City, Mo., who had taken three guards hostage and demanded a meeting with news media tell their demands to an early-morning news conference. The guards were released in exchange for a county executive and a newsman who volunteered to place themselves as hostages. Later the pair were released.

State promotes drinking limits

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State of Ohio is changing its tactics to reduce the number of traffic accidents caused by drunk drivers.

The health, highway safety, liquor control and transportation departments have banded together to help Ohio drivers learn how much alcohol they can drink before becoming dangerous drivers.

Acting Highway Safety Director Frederick A. Viorow admits the "Know Your Limit" campaign is a departure from the former "if you drink, don't drive" efforts.

But he said Thursday "prohibition was tried and it didn't work."

"It is time to educate ourselves about how much alcohol can be safely consumed before driving ability is impaired," he said during a news conference.

The public information campaign is to include statewide distribution of three million cards with blood alcohol content calculated to body weight; public service announcements; a speakers' bureau and the participation of civic groups.

Ohio Liquor Control Director Richard E. Guggenheim told the news conference his agency will distribute cards and information in state liquor stores to promote the effort.

He said tavern owners would "like to look at it a little more" before participating in the campaign.

The state and federal government will split the cost of the $24,000 program, according to Ohio Transportation Director J. Phillip Richley. The funds are provided to the state Department of Health's alcohol safety projects.

Leonard J. Porter, chief of the alcohol highway safety programs for the health department, said the campaign's effectiveness will be evaluated through a statewide house-to-house survey in October.

Porter said the program has reached 60 per cent of its "target audience" in 34 other areas in which it has been used.

According to the departments' figures, a person who weighs 200 pounds would be driving illegally if he consumed six ounces of 100 proof liquor or six 12-ounce beers within an hour.

That much alcohol would raise the blood alcohol content to .11 per cent. A BAC of .10 per cent is the presumptive level for conviction for driving while intoxicated, Viorow said.

"Knowledge of the facts would not only give the responsible social drinker a guideline to follow, it would also help enforcement in the courts," Viorow said.

"Jury members familiar with these facts would be less inclined to acquit a person with a BAC of .20," he explained. "They would know it took more than a 'few beers' to reach that level. It would take more like 10 beers in one hour or about 12 in three hours."

Radiation at atom plant to be probed

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The amount of radioactivity that will be released by the proposed Perry nuclear power station will be the subject next week of a public hearing here.

The Atomic Energy Commission's Atomic Safety and Licensing Board rejected a request Thursday by a citizens' group that site suitability hearings on the plant be postponed until this fall.

The Cleveland-based Coalition for Safe Nuclear Power made the request at a pre-hearing conference, asking that the session be combined with radiation hearings set for later this year.

The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. and four other utilities are seeking a permit to begin construction of the $1.3 million facility which is scheduled to begin operating in the fall of 1979.

Gerald Charoff, a CEI lawyer, told the board the company wants limited construction authorization from the AEC to begin work by Oct. 23. After that date, the plant would need approval from the newly formed Ohio Power Siting Commission, and that would mean a delay of a year, he said.

The siting commission and the coalition contend that CEI's assumptions about the demand for electric power should be examined. A coalition spokesman has charged that the company creates much of the demand by advertising.

DeFreeze funeral rites held

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Donald DeFreeze was marched to his grave to the beat of African drums here Thursday, while police officials in Los Angeles announced that the self-styled Symbionese Liberation Army general probably committed suicide just before police stormed the house where he died in a shootout last week.

A representative of the House of Wills funeral home estimated that about 1,000 persons listened to prayers by a Baptist minister and an orthodox Muslim in the chapel or waited outside for a glimpse of the coffin after the half-hour ceremony.

Noticeably absent, however, were the national revolutionary leaders DeFreeze's brother had called on to attend.

Meanwhile, Los Angeles County Coroner Thomas P. Noguchi said that gunpowder traces around a gunshot wound in DeFreeze's right temple indicated a self-inflicted fatal injury.

He said fingers and teeth used to identify DeFreeze would be kept in Los Angeles until the case was closed.

Cause of death of the other five persons slain in the shootout, also identified by police as SLA members, had not been determined, Noguchi said.

After the funeral, Delano DeFreeze, a brother of the slain man, said his understanding of a case was that when a man was dead, the case was closed.

"It will definitely carry my family through some strain knowing that it's a possibility that we might have to open the grave again," he said.

A family spokesman said that only one of the slain man's eight brothers and sisters could not attend. Gloria DeFreeze, who divorced Donald in 1973, and his mother, Mary, attended, as did his six children.

In the eulogy and at a graveside news conference, Delano DeFreeze and Abdul Raheeb, a friend of the SLA chief, characterized Donald DeFreeze as a revolutionary leader who died for his ideals.

Cincinnati GM walkout ends

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Production resumed at the General Motors Assembly Division plant here today after a one-day wildcat walkout by union workers.

A company spokesman refused to say whether all the strikers were back on the job. "I can just tell you the line is running again," he said.

Another GM official, Jim Dunn, said company representatives and union leaders would confer later in an effort to resolve the dispute that led to the walkout.

Gasoline available on Ohio Turnpike

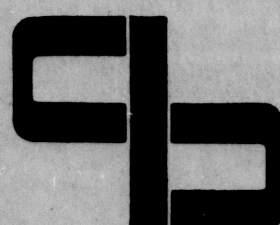

BEREA, Ohio (AP) — Motorists will have no trouble getting gasoline on the Ohio Turnpike this holiday weekend, the Ohio Turnpike Commission said Thursday.

Executive Director Allan V. Johnson said that turnpike service stations would be open 24 hours a day and would not be limiting gasoline sales.

Transportation director OKs bridge project

COLUMBUS — Ohio Transportation Director J. Phillip Richley has approved location and design for the proposed replacement of a narrow, deficient bridge four miles south of Washington C. H. on Ohio 41.

Proposal was discussed during a highway Division public hearing in Washington C. H. March 14.

The replacement bridge over Sugar Creek would be on improved alignment with new 24-foot approach pavement.

Maps, sketches, environmental factors and all other information concerning the proposed improvement is available to the public for viewing at the ODOT division office, 400 E. William St., Delaware.

A proposal regarding the allocation of voting strength for the eight-county Mid-Ohio Regional Commission resulted in unfavorable response by some members of the commission during a meeting Thursday in Columbus.

J. Herbert Perrill, chairman of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners, who is presently representing Fayette County on the regional planning authority, said the principal objector was Columbus Mayor Tom Moody.

Under the proposal submitted by a special negotiating committee, a double requirement would exist for a quorum to take action on any matter.

The provisions would require that 51 per cent of the total board members (at least 25) be present and that three-fourths of the member counties (at least six) also be represented.

IN ADDITION, a three-fourths vote of all members present would be required to constitute an official action. If the quorum requirement is not met at a given meeting, official action could be taken at the next meeting by a three-fourths vote of 51 per cent of the total board members.

Another feature of the proposal was that costs of operation would be allocated to the governmental units on the basis of their voting percentage, not per capita.

Moody submitted a proposal under which Franklin County would have a 71 per cent share of the voting strength. Moody's suggestion met opposition from a number of the regional planning commission members.

The two proposals will be submitted for further consideration at the next meeting which will be held in five weeks.

Under the negotiating committee's plan at least two-thirds of the representatives from each county must be local elected officials; one commissioner from each member county; one county appointee, preferably a township trustee; one person to represent all villages in the county, and one representative from each county for each increment of 100,000 population.

That proposal would give Fayette, Fairfield, Delaware, Madison, Pickaway and Union counties would each have 8.3 per cent of the voting strength. Franklin County would have 39.7 per cent and Licking County would have 10.5 per cent.

The eight counties would have a 48-member governing board, under the proposal, and Fayette County would have four representatives.

Regional planning vote proposal is unfavorable

Program recognizes 100 Eber 8th grade students

Nearly 100 eighth grade students at Eber Junior School were recognized during a special program Thursday afternoon in the school cafeteria.

Two special awards highlighted the program. Kathy Jenkins and Joe Garland received the Danny Miller memorial citizenship awards and will have their names engraved on a plaque at the school. Scott Martin was named the winner of the friendship award. The award was presented by Bill Octen.

Principal Robert Creamer presented honor roll awards to six students who have maintained a 3.5 academic average or above over a two-year period. They were Kathy Jenkins, Sue Mitchell, Brad Maust, Joyce Huffman, Becky Callendar and Dorothy Blake.

CLASS PRESIDENT Vicki Bennett introduced Sally Bowles, who read the class poem. Keith Downing was chairman of the school's sports activities. Brent Knisley, Chris Kuebler, Don Eyre and Ralph Fast reported on the school's participation in various sports activities throughout the year.

The class prophecy was written and read by Rick Pfeifer. Pete Win-tringham and Larry Hall assisted.

The class will was read by Cherie Holbrook, Dianne Jackson, Tom Wilkins, Linda Neiswenter, Kari Clay, Mike Chaney, Chip Adams, Rex Raines, Kevin Anderson and Linda Merritt.

Kenny Clouser and Tom Tarbutton read the class history and Dianne Jackson, Becky Callendar and Vicki Bennett were recognized as the eighth grade cheerleaders.

The meal was prepared by Mrs. Edna Carman and Mrs. Charles Johnson.

If you need a car
that's roomy and comfortable at an affordable price,
Impala is a sensible buy.

Not every family can fit into one of today's popular small cars. Because of your family's size or your job, it may make sense to own a full-size car like the Chevrolet Impala with a roomy interior that holds six comfortably.

If you sometimes haul bulky objects, you'll appreciate Impala's 18 cubic feet of trunk space. And to make the least of rough roads, Impala has Full Coil spring suspension, strategically placed rubber body mounts and extensive sound insulating.

For extra protection, there are side guard door beams and a Cargo Guard luggage compartment. And to make driving more pleasant, Impala comes with such standard features as Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, power front disc/rear drum brakes and variable ratio power steering.

Come in and let us show you why it makes sense to buy a reasonably priced Impala, the car that's been the nation's Number One seller for 14 years. And why it makes sense to buy it from us.

Damaging incident brings suspended jail sentences

Two young Washington C.H. men received suspended jail sentences and large fines in Municipal Court Thursday after they pleaded guilty to charges of criminally damaging or endangering of property.

Judge Reed M. Winegardner fined Mark Haines, 18, of 1030 S. Hinde St., and Jeffrey L. Vandergriff, 18, of 524 Third St., $200 each and suspended 30-day jail sentences.

The two were arrested by Fayette County Sheriff's Deputy Donald L. Cox Thursday morning.

William B. Nye along with State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker, D-Bourneville, and Lt. Col. Orland K. Hill, deputy district engineer of the Huntington, W. Va., district of the U.S. Army Corps of transferred the subjects to Fayette Memorial Hospital for treatment.

Upon investigation, it was determined that the subject had cut his wrist while breaking into an unoccupied home near the area where they were walking.

Haines was treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital for his injury.

Charles Cooper filed three charges which were heard Thursday.

Clark Redding, Louisville, Ky., was fined $15 after he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile in areas of the Deer Creek Wildlife Area where such vehicles are prohibited.

David A. Jordon, and Glenn E. Darst, of Rt. 1, Mount Sterling, each forfeited $25 bond on the same charge.

Miami sorority receives $278 for memorial fund

OXFORD — An American Cancer Society contribution of nearly $280 in memory of a Miami University student has been made from proceeds of the recent All-Greek Songfest sponsored by Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority on Miami's Oxford Campus.

Established as an annual campus friendship event for benefit purposes, the Songfest last year raised $100 for the Office of Minority Student Affairs. This year, it was to be a Cancer Society contribution in the name of Marta Ann Schaeper, Washington C. H., who died Feb. 18. She had been a sophomore at the time of her withdrawal from school last fall.

The check for $278.53 presented to Delta Delta Delta sorority for forwarding to the American Cancer Society included $59.83, which had been received in pennies in voting for Songfest contestants.

Overall trophy in the Songfest, reflecting enthusiasm, donations and general excellence of performance went to Kappa Sigma fraternity and Pi Beta sorority. Judged best in stage presence were Lambda Chi Alpha and Gamma Phi Beta. Separate awards for musical difficulty and musical quality went to Sigma Phi Epsilon and Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Engineers, formally opened the campground at a ceremony at 10 a.m. at the park.

Also present at the ceremony were representatives of the Chambers of Commerce of Circleville, Washington C.H., Mount Sterling and New Holland.

Ranney Water Systems, of Columbus, constructed the 232 Class A camping sites and supporting facilities for the Corps of Engineers at a cost of $1,123,922. About 80 of the camping sites won't be available for about a week when grading to correct a drainage problem is completed.

"DEER CREEK is within 50 miles of Columbus, Dayton, Springfield and Chillicothe," Nye said, "making it less than an hour's drive for more than two million Ohioans."

About 5.4 million Ohioans live within 100 miles of the park.

The camping sites, all with electricity available, rent on a first-come, first-served basis for $2.50 a night. The campground includes four washrooms with showers and laundry facilities, six modern restrooms, a trailer waste station and a parking lot for 42 cars and 20 cars with trailers.

One washhouse is specially equipped for handicapped campers.

The camping area has a water treatment plant, 11,112 feet of water line, two sewage lagoons, 14,255 feet of sanitary sewers, two sewage lift stations and 15,850 feet of roadway.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers turned over the new campground to the Ohio Department of Natural Resources to be operated as a part of the 7,000-acre state park much like the facilities at Delaware, Dillon and Mosquito state parks.

Deer Creek State Park is about 20 miles west of Circleville off Ohio 207.

Say white slave ring broken

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— The FBI announced today the arrests of 10 persons in connection with what it said was a white slave ring operating in Ohio, West Virginia and New York.

Frederick C. Fehl, special agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said the arrests were made on warrants issued after a federal grand jury in Cleveland returned indictments Thursday.

He said the indictments charge 17 persons with a total of 90 counts in violation of the federal white slave traffic act, interstate transportation in aid of racketeering for prostitution and conspiracy.

Progressive school plans to enter Jaycee olympics

Students of the Fayette Progressive School will compete in a special olympic competition Saturday at Teays Valley High School in Ashville. The program, which begins at 10 a.m. is sponsored by District 43 of the Ohio Jaycees.

Some 25 students from the school here will participate in athletic competition, including a 50-yard dash, softball throw, long jump, high jump and 300-yard run. The events are open to students eight years of age and older.

The program is being held in conjunction with similar competitions under the direction of Jaycee organizations nationwide. Top finishers in District 43 will be invited to participate in the Ohio Jaycee Olympics held later in the summer. The district includes Washington C. H., Ashville, Chillicothe, Groveport and Circleville.

City police monthly report shows 39 criminal arrests

Washington C.H. police officers during the month of April totaled 39 criminal arrests, 107 traffic arrests and investigated 765 incidents, according to the monthly report issued by Police Chief Rodman Scott.

Of the 765 incidents, the most common were incidents involving juveniles, 67; accidents, 65; theft, 61; suspicious persons-cars, 56; and lost and found articles, 54.

During the month, Washington C.H. police officers arrested 9 persons for disorderly conduct, 8 for misdemeanor check fraud, 4 for assault, 4 on bench warrants, 3 for intoxication and 3 for breaking and entering.

The 39 criminal arrests for the month of April 1974 is a decrease from the 45 arrests for the same period in 1973.

UNSAFE VEHICLE citations, which included those arrested for driving cars having unsafe bumper heights, topped the list of traffic offenses during the month with 42 arrested offenders. Making excessive noise resulted in 9 arrests, speeding, 8; driving while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs of abuse, 8; and no operator's license, 8.

The 107 arrests for traffic violations during April, brings the total for 1974 to 290. In 1973, 66 persons were arrested during April and the total stood at 287.

Property damage resulting in auto mishaps during the month, was estimated by Police Chief Scott at $9,482, bringing the total so far to $62,877. Damage for April last year was $16,915.

Value of property reported stolen during the month totaled $2,298.14.

Value of property recovered was $873. Vandalism was responsible for a reported $268.50 damage in April, 1974.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., that he will continue to guarantee Jaworski's freedom in the Watergate investigation.

—An Internal Revenue Service spokesman said IRS has declined to supply the House Judiciary Committee with information on Nixon's tax returns.

The spokesman said Treasury Secretary William E. Simon has referred to Saxbe the question of whether it would be proper to supply the information that the committee requested.

To be resolved is whether the committee's constitutional authority over impeachment is superior to specific statutory prohibition in the Internal Revenue code against giving out tax return information, the spokesman said.

After the House committee's session, Doar repeated the criticism of the White House tapes he had delivered to the members.

"I am concerned about their accuracy and about the judgments of the President and his counsel on matters of relevance," he said.

Shrine observing 'Hospital Week'

International Shrine Hospital Week is being observed in Ohio this week as a tribute to those who have supported "the world's greatest philanthropy" during its almost 52-year history.

Charles A. Dinwiddie, illustrious potentate of Aladdin Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, said the temple's more than 14,300 members will join with their 900,000 fellow Nobles across the country this week to give thanks for the vision which resulted in the establishment of the Shrine's 19 crippled children's hospitals and three burns institutes.

The Washington C. H. Shrine Club donates hundreds of dollars per year toward the hospital fund. The Shriners raise funds through several projects, including the beef barbecue during Old Fashioned Bargain Days.

Since the first Shrine Hospital was opened Sept. 16, 1922, at Shreveport, Louisiana, more than 169,000 children from all parts of the world have been treated, "restored to health and well being, or materially aided" — without cost of any kind to the child or the family, Dinwiddie said.

Pistol match slated Sunday

A public pistol match has been scheduled Sunday afternoon at the Fayette County Fish and Game Association's range on Stafford Road.

Phil French said the match will begin at 12 noon and continue until 5 p.m. All types of pistols will be accepted for competition in the match and cash prizes will be awarded. The participants will be firing from a range of 25 yards.

Sunday's public match marks the first since Fish and Game Association members completed improvements in the range facilities.

The public is invited to participate in shooting events such as this, but non-members are prohibited from using the range facilities at other times, French said.

THE FREE treatment of orthopedic and burns patients is financed by the contributions and legacies of Shriners and non-Shriners. Not a cent of government money is used.

The little patient, who may be of any race, creed or nationality, must be under 15 years of age and sponsored by a Shriner.

During the first 51 years of service, the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospitals have chalked up 15,329,856 patient days in their brief history. More than $75 million were spent in hospital construction costs and approximately $274,142,000 in operating expenses between 1922 and 1974. The 1974 operating budget is nearly $40 million.

Each Shriners Hospital, in addition to having the most modern equipment, is both a school and a home away from home. Everything possible is done to give the patient a normal life, including a happy and pleasant atmosphere with a "where love comes first" philosophy. Everything that the youngster may require while hospitalized... clothing, toilet articles, laundry, linen, barbering, food, dental care, braces, crutches, medical treatment, schooling and other necessities — is provided without cost to the family.

The Aladdin potentate said orthopedic cases over the years have averaged about $1,700 each. Burns treatment is much more costly, running between $10,000 and $12,000 on an average. One case cost in excess of $100,000.

Columbus area youngsters, who qualify because of type of handicap, neediness of the family and age, are admitted to either the Burns Institute at Cincinnati or the Orthopedic Unit at Lexington, Kentucky. The Cincinnati facility observed its 10th Anniversary in February, 1974, and reported it had treated 950 patients from five countries, 35 states and 104 Temples. Sixty of them would not have survived without the specialized treatment provided, Dinwiddie said.

HAPPY PATIENT — Five-year-old Laurie of Estherville, Ia. is one of the 6,000 patients treated free of charge each year by Shriners Hospitals For Crippled Children. Shrine Hospitals in the United States, Canada and Mexico celebrate International Shrine Hospital Day Sunday, May 19. They are in their 52nd year of treating children of all races and creeds. At the age of five-months, Laurie had to have both feet amputated following injuries by fire.

Man convicted in field run

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Dennis Purcell, 23, of suburban Cheviot, who already had been fined $100 for running onto the field at Riverfront Stadium May 7 and interrupting a Cincinnati Reds baseball game, was convicted of resisting arrest Wednesday in connection with the same incident.

Purcell was fined another $50. Police said the man was unable to pay the fine and is serving it out in jail.

Duster has a lower sticker price than Volkswagen.

It's true! Our Plymouth Duster is priced below Volkswagen's most popular model. But Duster offers a whole lot more. Things like room for 5 instead of 4. And a trunk that's three times as big as the Super Beetle's. But Duster's sized right for small car parking and handling, and runs on regular gas. Check out Duster, now.

Delta Air Lines plans expansion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Columbus Airport Commission has agreed to submit a $748,000 facility expansion contract with Delta Air Lines to the Columbus city service director for study.

The airline Wednesday asked the commission for permission to build a $748,000 second-level passenger loading facility at Port Columbus.

Delta said it would pay $606,000 of the cost, either directly or through a five-year rental plan. Part of the project includes an elevator, escalator and security check area.

Springfield man faces execution

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — A 26-year-old Springfield man has been sentenced to die in the electric chair Sept. 27 for the Jan. 8 murder of Dwight E. Baker.

Roger L. Strodes was sentenced Thursday for the robbery-killing of the sundry goods store owner.

Strodes' attorney has indicated he will appeal.

TV Viewing

NEW YORK (AP) This Sunday night, ABC-TV is offering a two-hour tape replay of the day's Indianapolis 500, an event some consider a motorized loony display and others a legitimate sports contest.

But come Monday night, the Public Broadcasting Service will offer a far broader look at motor mania with "The Chrome-Plated Nightmare," a one-hour study of America's long love affair with the automobile.

Those who survive Memorial Day traffic might check out this show, though they're herewith warned it is uneven, gabby to a fault and never asks Detroit auto moguls to explain themselves or their wares.

As its title suggests, the program is pretty much of a raspberry directed primarily at the raised-fin, chrome-crazy, power-mad golden era of happy motoring—the mid-1950s to 1970.

It's a generally predictable inspection of the attitudes that led to that automotive mess, starting with the obligatory pilgrimage to Los Angeles, where the car is rumored to be king. But there are some fine segments that offer considerable fuel for thought, particularly producer-narrator Bill Stewart's sporadic use of old auto show newsreels and commercials to make his point.

One of the latter is a classic piece of pop art that seems awfully silly in this day of relatively sober, gas conscious motoring. It's a cartoon of a car snoozing at dawn at a deserted race track.

"The 1969 Plymouth GTX," breathes the announcer, "can devour anything in its path." And for one minute the snoring gradually becomes a snarling roar, the car's features contort and exhaust flames spout.

The show sputters to a close with a limp suggestion by auto critic John Jerome that less driving by more people is the only way we'll save our world from ruin.

It's doubtful that'll happen.

Milwaukee holds first in American League East

By The Associated Press

The Brewers most famous these days in Milwaukee are the ones that play baseball, not make beer.

Long known as the stronghold of suds, Milwaukee's cup suddenly is running over in the American League East pennant race.

Panthers honored at spring picnic

Fred Zechman, track coach, presented first year letters to Gary Combs, Bruce Ervin, Rod Garringer, Bill Warnock, Steve Wilson and Gary Cobb. Second year letter winners included Tim Bretigan, Rick Gleadall, Jeff King, Kirk Neff, John Schlacter, Dave Steinhauer and Joel Vanarsdall. Ernie Perry and Ron Warnock were the only three year letter winners.

Reserve track letters were presented to Alan Fleming, Chris Simpson, Mike Smith, Bill Brundage and Brad Smith.

Four of the thinclads received special trophies for their efforts during the year. King was named the most valuable sprinter, Perry received a trophy for being the most valuable distance runner, while Steinhauer and Warnock shared honors for being the most valuable field event participants.

In baseball, Randy Reiber, Tom Riley and Phil Skinner walked off with the top trophies. Reiber was voted the team's most valuable player. Riley was awarded the best batting average

"Pressure is what baseball's all about—and we have a team that can keep the pressure on," said Milwaukee's George Scott after a 7-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers Thursday. "We have guys who can run, guys who hit for average and guys who hit for power. We should keep the pressure on all the time."

Particularly, Milwaukee's racehorse style has caught the fancy of the hometown fans. The Brewers have literally raced into first place in the East race with a running game.

Against the Tigers Thursday, the Brewers stole a club record five bases and had 11 in the four-game series, which they won, 3-1.

In Thursday's other American League games, the Cleveland Indians blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0; the California Angels beat the Kansas City Royals 3-1 and the Chicago White Sox stopped the Texas Rangers 9-6.

Scott's bloop triple capped a two-run seventh inning rally that lifted Milwaukee over Detroit.

Indians 2, Orioles 0

Gaylord Perry pitched a three-hitter and George Hendrick singled home the only run he needed, leading Cleveland over Baltimore.

Jets triumph 2-0 on Noel's two-hitter

In Thursday night's Washington Little League action, the Jets recorded a 9-0 whitewash of the Record-Herald on a two-hitter by Noel and Kaufman's edged Rotary Wheels 6-5.

In his two-hitter, Noel struck out 11 batters and walked just one. His pitching counterpart, Byrd, had 12 strikeout victims, but he walked seven batters.

Clark Lee's home run was the big hit of the game. It was Lee's third home run in two games.

Trailing 6-5, Rotary had runners on second and third with no outs in the final inning. However, a line drive turned into a double play to quickly give Rotary two outs. The final out was recorded on a pop up.

Dodds, Rotary's starting pitcher, struck out 10 batters and walked two in five innings. However, he did not pick up the decision.

In Minor League play, 1st Federal bombed Agric 26-2 and Sagars scored six runs in the final inning to defeat Bumgarner 11-9.

Seventeen of 1st Federal's runs were unearned. Agric pitchers issued a total of 16 walks and hit three batters, as their fielders committed 18 errors in the game. 1st Federal's Marti cracked

Syracuse posts wins over Toledo in IL

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Stanley homered for two runs in the last inning to power Syracuse to a 2-1 International League victory over Toledo Thursday night.

The victory gave Syracuse a sweep of Thursday night's doubleheader. The Chief's won the first encounter 6-5.

immediate hearing. The reason we didn't do that before was the time involved," Wright Hugas, a lawyer retained by Roy Woods Racing, said after the decision was announced.

"If we get a USAC hearing and they deny our appeal, then we're right back in court. But we don't even have to have a hearing on that. The filing of the appeal with USAC will give us the right to be back in court."

"And even if our appeal is denied, we still have the million dollar suit," he said, referring to a damage suit still pending against USAC and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

"These guys are going to have to pay for what they did wrong."

Symmes' ruling was based on a technicality. He granted a dismissal motion by defense attorneys for the Speedway and USAC because the owners brought their suit into court before appealing to USAC.

"This decision had nothing to do with the facts of this case—absolutely nothing," Hugas said. "To lose on a technicality is really disappointing. Some of these men have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in this race. But if nothing else, we showed them people just don't roll over and lie down," he said.

"We doubt if USAC would act before Sunday. But we're all ready for the race. With a little practice time, we could go for qualifications an hour before the race," he added.

Hugas pointed to the money spent by Woods, Rasmussen Racing Products, Carl Gehlhausen, K & L Racing Inc. and Webster Racing Inc. to enter the race and to take their case to court.

He said if further attempts to reopen qualifications fail "Some of these guys will never come back to the race."

Fourth straight defeat for Cincinnati

Sacrifice fly spells Reds' 5-4 loss

SAN DIEGO (AP) — At the start of spring training, San Diego Manager John McNamara was so displeased with infielder Derrel Thomas' attitude that he considered shunting him to the minors. Now he has become one of the slender second baseman's biggest boosters.

"He's playing great, isn't he?" McNamara judged Thursday night after Thomas hit a run-scoring fly in the 13th inning to give the Padres a 5-4 victory and hand Cincinnati its fourth straight loss. Earlier, Thomas had hit a two-run double to wipe out a 3-1 Cincinnati lead in the sixth inning.

Thomas is averaging .295, has played

so well afield that he has established himself as the club's regular second baseman. He has also driven in 16 runs, one less than a slugger such as Willie McCovey.

"I was looking for a screwball and I got one that was up," he said after the basesloaded fly he hit to drive in Enzo Hernandez from third base with the winning run.

The Reds, who stranded 20 runners and wasted 18 hits, were bitter over a last-inning call by third base umpire Nick Colosi.

The stage for the dispute was set after Hernandez led off with a single and took second on Norman's balk.

After Nate Colbert was purposely walked, Rich Morales bunted to Norman, who threw to third in hopes of a forceout. However, Colosi ruled Hernandez safe.

"I cannot believe it," said Cincinnati manager George (Sparky) Anderson. "He (Colosi) couldn't understand why I was out there arguing with him. He said it wasn't even close. Why, Enzo was out by several feet."

attendance for the first 23 dates is 145,120 ahead of the same period in 1973.

"I'm proud of the way we keep coming from behind—we may be in last place but we don't give up," said McNamara. Behind 3-1, the Padres rallied to tie the score 3-3 in the sixth. And they came from behind again in the 12th after Tony Perez singled home a run. In the home half, a walk to Thomas and a single by Bob Barton put runners at first and third with two out before Norman, called out of the bullpen, got Fred Kendall to hit a grounder that rolled through the legs of third baseman Dan Driessen for an error that enabled Thomas to score.

"I don't try any harder against Cincinnati than I do against other teams," said Padre right fielder Bobby Tolan, the Redleg castoff who had four of his club's 12 hits.

He was acquired during the off season in the trade to the Reds of righthander Clay Kirby, who gave up the first three San Diego runs. Interestingly, the Padres pinned the loss on another former mate, Norman, 3-5, who has lost two nights in a row.

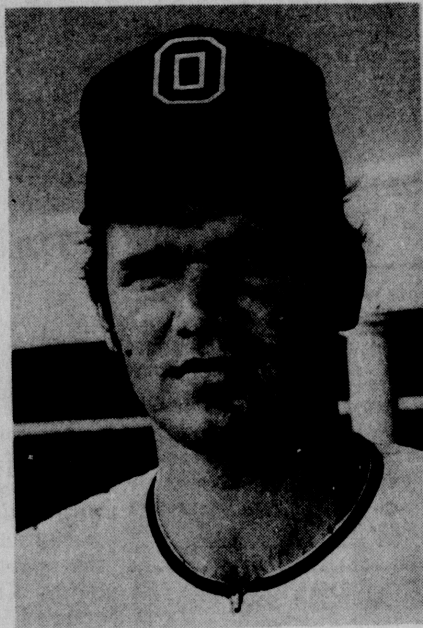

The Padres used 22 of their 24 available players. They couldn't use reliever Vicente Romo, who has a stiff arm, and that left only lefthander Randy Jones.

Drissen had four hits for the Reds and knocked in two of their runs, while Kirby and Perez each drove in one with singles.

Bihl named OU captain

STEVE BIHL

Steve Bihl, a 1971 graduate of Miami Trace High School, has been elected tri-captain of Ohio University's baseball team for next season. The Bobcats finished their season with a 28-15 overall record and 11-7 in the Mid-American Conference.

Bihl, who was a junior outfielder and first baseman, batted .280 for the season. He had 42 hits, while slapping three home runs and knocking in 27 runs. He had a .969 fielding percentage.

In league play, Bihl batted .246 in 18 games. He had a total of 16 hits and seven runs batted-in. His fielding percentage was .957.

SERVING FAYETTE COUNTY

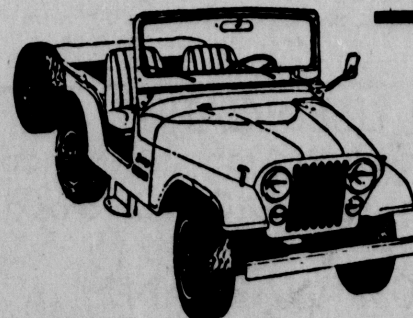

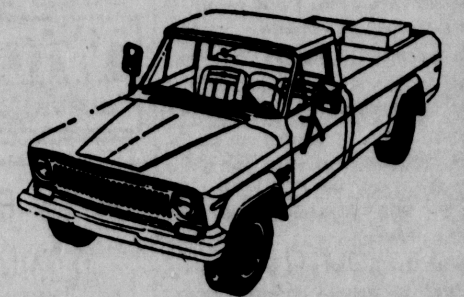

1974 JEEP CHEROKEE

Jeep's all-new entry in the sport utility vehicle field. All-new in the truest sense — from the high-load capacity 6-bolt wheels to the integral steel top. It's a versatile family fun machine that has the ruggedness, reliability and go-anywhere heritage Jeep vehicles are known for. It's a Jeep and a half!

1974 JEEP PICKUP TRUCK

Most light-duty pickup trucks offer 4-wheel drive as an option. Only Jeep Corporation makes a line of light-duty pickup trucks that are designed specifically to be 4-wheel drive trucks. It's strong enough to go where you want it to — do what you want it to. Yet with all that toughness, it has comfort and classic good looks.

1974 JEEP CJ-5

The original 4-wheel drive outdoor sport. The Jeep CJ-5 began over 30 years ago and a lot of things have happened since to make it the tough, dependable, class-by-itself 4-wheel drive vehicle it is today. The best way to learn about the fun and excitement of off-road adventure is behind the wheel of a Jeep CJ-5!

Union fails in OU vote

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The Student Workers Union failed to gain representation of student employees at Ohio University Thursday because an insufficient number of those eligible to vote cast ballots.

Officials said 799 students voted in favor of the union and 167 voted against. The number of ballots cast, including 128 challenges which were not counted and one ballot that was voided, totaled 1,095.

Under terms of the agreement setting up the election, 1,100 students must have voted for the balloting to be valid.

The university agreed to the representation election after the union conducted a three-day strike earlier this month.

The union agreed that it would not pursue the matter again for at least a year if it failed to win the election.

The most magnetic material at ordinary temperatures is cobalt-copper-samarium.

County kindergarten enrollment shows increase over last year

Two weeks of kindergarten registration in the county schools have resulted in the enrollment of 222 first year students for the 1974-75 school year.

The figure is slightly higher than the number currently attending the

Set rejection of licenses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Liquor Control planned today to reject applications by Sport-service, Inc., for renewal of 19 liquor licenses, a spokesman said.

Sportservice operates outlets at six locations in Toledo, Cincinnati and the Cleveland area.

The department said it was acting under a section of the state Liquor Control Act that permits it to deny renewal if it finds good cause to do so.

The spokesman, Keith Cennamo, said the renewals were refused because the department believes Sportservice may be affiliated with the Emprise Corp., which has been under investigation by the federal government.

3 traffic mishaps probed by officers

A Forest Street resident was charged by Washington C.H. police officers with unsafe backing Thursday morning and an accident involving a van and a truck occurred Thursday afternoon city police reported. The Fayette County Sheriff's Department investigated an county's eight kindergarten programs, and almost 25 per cent more than the number of students enrolled at the same time last year.

During the two-week period county administrators and specialized personnel visited each of the eight schools to encourage parents to register their children.

GUY FORSTER, superintendent; Steven Yambor, assistant superintendent; and Mrs. June Slaughter, elementary supervisor, explained to the parents their role in working with the elementary program.

Miss Leslie Jones and Miss Tana Lucas, speech and hearing therapists and Ronald Lott, school psychologist, interviewed those youngsters who enrolled in order to determine whether or not seemed to have learning disabilities.

It was the first time that the county has ever tested for learning difficulties prior to the beginning of school. Mrs. Slaughter explained that early detection of these problems is essential to the welfare of the student.

"The sooner hearing, speech or motor difficulties are discovered and treated, the more effective the therapy will be," said Mrs. Slaughter.

A breakdown of the enrollment so far is 19 at Madison Mills, 28 at New Holland, 40 at Jeffersonville, 34 at Chaffin, 16 at Jasper, 35 at Staunton, 17 at Wayne, and 33 at Bloomingburg. Parents who have not yet enrolled their children should contact the Fayette County school office, 335-3010, as soon as possible.

Due to the imbalance of enrollment, some students may have to be transferred to other schools. Enrollment of students at the earliest possible date will aid county officials in the scheduling classes to the student's best advantage.

Traffic Court

Three persons were scheduled to appear before Judge Reed M. Winegardner in Municipal Court Thursday on possible traffic violations.

Luckie E. Webb, 24, of 318 W. Court St., was fined $50 after he pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless operation, and Alice Hiles, 34, of 1424 Lindberg Ave., forfeited $18 bond on a red light citation. Both had been arrested by city police.

Howard L. Dotson, 54, of Comfort, W. Va., forfeited $60 bond when he failed to appear on a charge of driving without a valid operator's license. He had been arrested by Sheriff's deputies.

Jasper School PTO holds final meeting

MILLEDGEVILLE — The Jasper Parent-Teacher Organization held its final meeting of the school year Thursday night at Jasper Elementary School.

On the agenda was the introduction of new officers, discussion of a project to replace the ceilings in two rooms and cancellation of a proposed trip to the Columbus Zoo for the children.

President Marion Stockwell introduced the officers for next year. Taking over his duties as chief executive will be Mrs. Delores Duteil. The new vice president will be Mack Reynolds; secretary, Mrs. Frances Herdman; and treasurer, Mrs. Helen Anderson.

A committee composed of Sid Woodrow, Gary Herdman and Marion Stockwell met recently at the school with Sonny Walters, of Walters Ridge Homes, who has agreed to lower the ceiling in the first and second grade rooms at a cost of $1,114. The project will commence immediately after school has recessed.

A treasurer's report showed that the PTO currently has $1,065.78.

A picnic for the last day of school has preempted the proposed trip to the Columbus Zoo. The change in schedule was mandated by the fact that transportation for the trip is unavailable.

Officers probing check, vandalism incident reports

A Fayette County woman's car was vandalized, sheriff's deputies reported and city police are investigating a bad check received by the Party Shoppe.

A car owned by Louvicia Ann Woodfork, of Bloomingburg, was vandalized sometime between 11 p.m. Wednesday and 1 a.m. Thursday, the Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported.

Someone had broken the distributor cap while the car was parked on Hidy Road.

A bad check for $20 was passed at the Party Shoppe, 219 W. Court St., on May 11. Washington C.H. police officers are investigating the incident.
